Community Practice Skills Local To Global Perspectives:

Community Practice Skills Dorothy N. Gamble, Marie Weil, 2010 Dorothy N Gamble and Marie Weil differentiate among a range of intervention methods to provide a comprehensive and effective guide to working with communities Presenting eight distinct models grounded in current practice and targeted toward specific goals Gamble and Weil take an unusually inclusive step combining their own extensive experience with numerous case and practice examples from talented practitioners in international and domestic settings The authors open with a discussion of the theories for community work and the values of social justice and human rights concerns that have guided the work of activists from Jane Addams and Martin Luther King Jr to Cesar Chavez Wangari Maathai and Vandana Shiva They survey the concepts knowledge and perspectives influencing community practice and evaluation strategies Descriptions of eight practice models follow incorporating real life case examples from many parts of the world and demonstrating multiple applications for each model as well as the primary roles competencies and skills used by the practitioner Complexities and variations encourage readers to determine through comparative analysis which model at which time best fits the goals of a community group or organization given the context culture social economic and environmental issues and opportunities for change An accompanying workbook stressing empowerment strategies and skills development is also available from Columbia University Press

Community Practice Skills Workbook Marie Weil, Dorothy N. Gamble, Emily MacGuire, 2009 Designed to accompany the comprehensive and exceptional Community Practice Skills Local to Global Perspectives this workbook enhances the discussion of skills and competencies for community practice Featuring direct exercises project ideas and role plays this workbook contains a range of activities that focus on a host of practice and theory issues designed for use in class groups field settings and career practice Crafted by leading social work practitioners and informed by the student perspective the Community Practice Skills Workbook shows how to analyze and synthesize new knowledge and effectively incorporate new skills into ongoing practice The workbook is intended for a variety of MSW DSW graduate courses and higher level undergraduate BSW courses especially those that focus on community practice and development It also applies to programs specializing in more general methods of macro social work
