

Date: Lesson	Teacher: Klein	Subject: English Language Arts	Grade: 2nd
Getting students ready to learn OPENING	Step 1: Teacher and students talk about what they will learn and do (Communication of Learning Intentions) Review the GPS Standards: RL.2.9 Compare and Contrast two or more versions of the same story by different authors or from different cultures. Review the TAG Standards: Higher Order Critical Thinking Standard: The student conducts comparisons using criteria. Review the Essential Question: How can we compare and contrast the different versions of the Cinderella story?
	Step 2: How will you know when they have gotten it? (Communication of Success Criteria) At the conclusion of the lesson, student will complete a semantic feature analysis checklist. The teacher will use the checklist to assess student comprehension of the various texts and how they compare and contrast.
	Step 3: Get the students interested Hook: Ask students if they have ever heard of Cinderella? Teacher gives students time to think-pair-share. Students are encouraged to use any knowledge of Cinderella in their conversation (whether it's the movie they've seen, a book that was read, or a story that was told to them). If students need background on this story, the teacher can show the video of Cinderella or orally tell the original version to them.
	Step 4: Give students new information The teacher will read one version of the Cinderella story aloud pausing throughout the story to ask clarifying questions of the students. By asking the who, what, where, when, why, and how, teachers can monitor comprehension during the story. The steps for this lesson will be repeated for each version of the Cinderella Story.
WORK PERIOD	Step 5: Have students use the new information (Guided Practice) After each story, the teacher will call on students to identify the characters, setting, problem and solution in the text. The teacher will record student responses onto a large chart displayed in the classroom. After reading several versions the teacher will walk the students through creating a Venn Diagram using any two of the stories.
