Competencies And Strategies For Speech Language Pathologist Assistants:

Competencies and Strategies for Speech-language Pathology Assistants Susan M. Moore, Lynea Pearson, 2003

Competencies and Strategies for Speech Language Pathology Assistants is an introductory text that provides a comprehensive understanding of the roles and responsibilities as well as the day to day expectations of Speech Language Pathology Assistants SLPAs. It augments the coverage of traditional SLPA topics with chapters on Professionalism and Ethical Issues, Health and Safety, and Observation, thus providing the user with concrete skills that are applicable in all treatment settings. The text acknowledges the ASHA approved criteria for SLPAs and in addition offers alternative models based on individual state licensure requirements. The text approaches the SLPA degree with the understanding that it may be the starting point to a professional support personnel career or it may be a ladder to a Speech Language Pathology undergraduate or graduate degree. The content reflects the varied possibilities the SLPA degree can hold for different individuals in varied treatment settings across the United States and encourages users to explore these possibilities.

The Clinical Education and Supervisory Process in Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Elizabeth McCrea, Judith Brasseur, 2024-06-01. As with the actual practices of speech language pathologists and audiologists, clinical education and supervision practices work best when they are grounded not only in concept and theory but also in research. Designed to act as a complete guide to both the theory and the research, The Clinical Education and Supervisory Process in Speech Language Pathology and Audiology provides the most up to date information on these crucial topics. Following in the footsteps of their mentor Jean Anderson, Drs. Elizabeth McCrea and Judith Brasseur have taken on the task of assembling important current research and best practices in clinical education and supervision into one comprehensive resource. With their prestigious team of contributing authors, this text represents the culmination of decades of study and real world best practices. The Clinical Education and Supervisory Process in Speech Language Pathology and Audiology covers clinical education and supervision across five unique constituent groups: clinical educators of graduate students, preceptors of audiology externs, mentors of clinical fellows, supervisors of support personnel, and supervisors of professionals transitioning between work settings. It also includes the latest information on certification and accreditation requirements for preparation in supervision. Topics include: Foundations, Anderson's Continuum of Supervision, Components of the Process, Expectations for Supervision, Practical Research in Supervision, Literature from other Disciplines, Obtaining Feedback About the Supervisory Process, The Ethics of Clinical Education and Supervision, Supervisor Self Study and Accountability, Interprofessional Education and Practice in Clinical Education and Supervision. Chapter appendices add numerous ancillary materials allowing readers to easily adopt the most successful processes and strategies the research has revealed. Sample scripts of supervisory conferences, self assessment tools, action plan tools, and analysis systems can all be found inside. The Clinical Education and Supervisory Process in Speech Language Pathology and Audiology is intended as a primary resource for anyone in those professions in any setting who is engaged in the process of clinical education and supervision With this text as their guide clinical educators and supervisors will be able to ground their practices in the vast compiled research and study contained within Speech-Language Pathology Assistants Jennifer A. Ostergren, Margaret Vento-Wilson, 2022-12-29 The third edition of the bestselling Speech Language Pathology Assistants A Resource Manual is an essential practical and easy to use resource for SLPAs and SLPA educators and their students The text defines the roles of SLPAs and their supervisors offering additional insight into the scope of practice of an SLPA per current American Speech Language Hearing Association ASHA recommendations and includes discussions strategies and examples of real world issues such as using augmentative and alternative communication AAC and working with individuals with autism spectrum disorder ASD Also included within the chapters are important factors and modifications that can enhance the effectiveness of treatment activities For example using behavioral principles and incorporating play literacy and speech sound remediation into treatment or modifying the clinical interface to enhance group therapy dynamics for children and adults Initial chapters are devoted to specific aspects of an SLPA s development such as chapters on ways SLPAs can enhance clinical service through understanding of goals lesson plans data collection and note writing Likewise chapters on professional practice offer insight into ethical problem solving presenting a professional image developing mentoring relationships working with culturally and linguistically diverse populations and the use of self reflection for self improvement These chapters are followed by key principles for SLPAs to incorporate in clinical services provided to specific populations and disorders New to the Third Edition Updated ASHA documents throughout including references to the new ASHA Speech Language Pathology Assistant Scope of Practice 2022 and Speech Language Pathology Code of Conduct 2020 New co author Margaret Vento Wilson brings years of experience in both professional and academic settings and adds a fresh perspective throughout Significant updates to Chapter 11 on using behavioral principles New contributing authors bringing relevant updates in the field of speech language pathology Speech Language Pathology Assistants A Resource Manual Third Edition is a key resource for enhancing skills and highlighting professional practice issues for clinical practicum training or future employment This is a text both SLPAs and SLPA educators will want to have on their bookshelves
