Destination Brands Nigel Morgan, Annette Pritchard, Roger Pride, 2012-05-23 This textbook shows how cities regions and countries adopt branding strategies similar to those of leading household brand names in an effort to differentiate themselves and emotionally connect with potential tourists It asks whether tourist destinations get the reputations they deserve and uses topical case studies to discuss brand concepts and challenges It tackles how place perceptions are formed how cities regions and countries can enhance their reputations as creative competitive destinations and the link between competitive identity and strategic tourism policy making

City Branding in Chinese Megacity Regions Haiyan Lu, 2024-07-31 This book introduces a comprehensive conceptual framework which examines the impact of ecological modernization on city branding using Chinese megacity regions as examples Focusing on city branding efforts led by local governments it delves into practices driven by vertical inspiration horizontal imitation and self reflection It explores the influence of ecological modernization on different aspects of city branding such as the branding process strategy and governance The book also compares how ecological modernization affects city branding in terms of local government promotion and individual perceptions Lastly it scrutinizes city images associated with ecological modernization initiatives in symbolic urban projects shedding light on implementation barriers from the perspective of policy network theory This book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Chinese urban and environmental studies urban geography and urban sociology It will also appeal to policy makers practitioners and private companies working in the fields of place promotion city marketing and branding

Decolonizing Marketing Theory and Practice Hasan Gilani, 2024-11-22 In academic institutions worldwide the call to decolonize the syllabus curriculum and the entire university experience is growing louder and more urgent Yet the conversation must extend beyond blogs hashtags and social media trends This book dives deep into the critical need to challenge and transform the foundations of marketing education Addressing the urgent need for deeper conversations this book delves into the multifaceted process of decolonizing marketing theory and practice to foster a more inclusive field Through an insightful collection of contributions this book critically examines the entrenched roots of colonization capitalism and inequality urging us to move beyond simply adding non white authors and non Western case studies to the curriculum Decolonization should begin with a focus on inclusivity and equality progressing towards the recognition and exploration of diverse contexts and paradigms Through rigorous analysis and innovative perspectives this book identifies key areas in marketing pedagogy that require decolonization urging a move away from exclusionary practices and Western centric ideologies It identifies crucial areas where texts knowledge and contexts need to be decolonized advocating for a paradigm shift from a culture of exclusion and Western centric ideologies to one that embraces inclusivity and a broad range of philosophical perspectives from the non Western world Aimed at researchers and academics in the field of marketing this book offers a profound exploration of teaching and learning dynamics from a more inclusive and diverse perspective By fostering engagement with a wider audience it seeks to enrich the discourse around marketing education with a more nuanced and enriched perspective Decolonizing Marketing Theory and Practice is an essential resource for those committed to creating a more equitable and comprehensive understanding of marketing in a global context

Branding the Middle East Steffen Wippel, 2023-10-04 This edited volume investigates place product and personal branding in the Middle East and North Africa including some studies from adjacent regions and the wider Islamicate world Going beyond simply presenting logos and slogans it critically analyses processes of strategic communication and image building under general conditions of globalisation neoliberalisation and postmodernisation and in a regional perspective of lasting authoritarian rule and increased endeavours for worlding In particular it looks at the multiple actors involved in branding activities their interests and motives and investigates tools channels and forms of branding A major interest exists in the entanglements of different spatial scales and in the inconsistencies of communication measures Attention is paid to reconfigurations of certain images over time and to the positioning of objects of branding in time and space Historical case studies supplement the focus on contemporary branding efforts While branding in the Western world and many emerging economies has been meticulously analysed this edited volume fills an important gap in the research on MENA countries Political Branding in Cities Eleonora Pasotti, 2010 This book examines how cities suffering from poor government made a transition to brand politics to break a cycle of inertia
