The New Unity, 1897 Ethnicity, Disability, and Chronic Illness Waqar Ihsan-Ullah Ahmad, 2000 This book brings together significant emerging work on ethnicity disability chronic illness and caring by leading researchers in the field They explore the experience of minority ethnic people and examine the conceptualization of disability and chronic illness and the implications of particular definitions the everyday living with a disability or chronic ill health the role of services in providing support to disabled people and carers In theoretical terms the book problematizes distinctions between users and carers between the social model of disability and more individual medical discourses and argues that chronic illness and impairment can be made sense of only within personal social and citizenship contexts and ethnicity and racism remain important aspects of this wider context for minority ethnic people with impairment or chronic ill health In terms of policy and practice this volume highlights the continued problems experienced by minority ethnic disabled and chronically ill people and their families and it shows that although many of these users experiences are shared with white users the intensity and persistence of disadvantage that are faced by minority ethnic users can only be understood by reference to their racialized worlds This book offers both theoretical advancement and practice relevance in the field and is essential reading for students teachers and researchers in health and community care disability studies social work nursing public health social policy and sociology The book will also be of value to practitioners and policy makers in health and social services Interceptions Alice Miller, 2000 We are at the end of the Piscean Age standing on the brink of the Age of Aquarius Today many advanced beings have reincarnated to assist with the transition Exceptions to the general consciousness their birth charts are also exceptional Instead of having a different sign on each of the twelve houses many have pairs of signs enclosed within houses while other pairs fall on two successive cusps These interceptions are markers for those individuals once called Starseed or Starborn Seeming to have stepped back in time they are designed to be living examples of greater possibilities within the human species In spiritual terms they are Older Children of the Creator of this Universe Their differences create problems early in life which continue until they realize that they truly are different from the general population and that their differences are assets not deficiencies This requires a transformation process Entering the second phase of life each discovers who she or he is and why she or he came Finally that feeling of coming to do something special humanity is validated In clear everyday language she describes the six basic types of interceptions as defined by the six sign polarities Included are both a psychological meaning and a spiritual meaning for each as well as the influence of house positions and the meaning of the doubled house cusps The Indian Labour Year Book, 1975 Crash Landing Shane Manilal, 2019-09-30 The beauty of being human is that we each have our own minds Yes we do live in a routinely trained society where we are shaped in a sense but does that affect the true you Surely we can each as the cliché goes make up our own minds Writing this book with just one finger of my now main left hand my mind ventured on its own tangent which made me the happy person I now am Reflecting on my own life story shaped and formed me especially my totalitarian acceptance of humanity as one species as I answer the question in the title Maybe reading it will send your own mind into a place where it is happy and you find yourself or maybe it does not That is the actual essence of human prosperity our willingness to adapt and use whatever we come across or not use it It s our own choice to make Join me as I fill your mind with my story and then you can make up your mind about your own story Love Light Shane Library Journal ,1999 Accessions List, South Asia Library of Congress.
