Community Cohesion In Crisis New Dimensions Of Diversity And Difference:

Community Cohesion in Crisis? John Flint, Professor David Robinson, 2008 This book examines how new dimensions of diversity and difference so often debated in the national context are emerging at the neighbourhood level Promoting social cohesion Ines Newman, Peter Ratcliffe, 2011-05-11 This book makes a forthright case for a shift in policy focus from community cohesion to the broader notion of social cohesion and is distinctive and innovative in its focus on evaluation It constitutes an extremely valuable source both for practitioners involved in social cohesion interventions and for researchers and students studying theory based evaluation and the policy areas highlighted housing intergenerational issues the recession education communications community development The well-connected community Gilchrist, Alison, 2009-07-22 Since the publication of the first edition of The well connected community there has been a growing recognition in practice and policy of how networks contribute to the vitality of community life and civil society Government policy has increasingly emphasised the need to involve communities in decision making while social capital is increasingly associated with health low levels of crime educational achievement and a strong sense of community The well connected community aims to strengthen and extend informal networks support partnership working across boundaries and promote social cohesion It explores the concept of community in relation to patterns of interaction social identity and mutual influence advocating a new model of community development that promotes networking as a skilled and strategic intervention and providing recommendations for good networking practice This fully updated second edition includes new ideas drawn from recent research on social capital and the policy context for community practice reflecting the increasing emphasis on community engagement and empowerment Recent case studies and examples have been added throughout The well connected community is aimed at practitioners trainers policy makers and managers working with communities or responsible for community participation strategies both in the UK and internationally Academics will also find it a useful source for teaching and research New Directions in Race, Ethnicity and Crime Coretta Phillips, Colin Webster, 2013-10-08 The disproportionate criminalisation and incarceration of particular minority ethnic groups has long been observed though much of the work in criminology has been dominated by a somewhat narrow debate This debate has concerned itself with explaining this disproportionality in terms of structural inequalities and socio economic disadvantage or discriminatory criminal justice processing This book offers an accessible and innovative approach including chapters on anti-Semitism social cohesion in London Bradford and Glasgow as well as an exploration of policing Traveller communities Incorporating current empirical research and new departures in methodology and theory this book also draws on a range of contemporary issues such as policing terrorism immigration detention and youth gangs In offering minority perspectives on race crime and justice and white inmate perspectives from the multicultural prison the book emphasises contrasting and distinctive influences on constructing ethnic identities It will be of interest to students studying courses in ethnicity crime and justice Putting Family First Harald Bauder, 2019-05-01 When migrants reach their new home we often interpret their settlement and integration as an individual process driven largely by the labour market But family plays a crucial role Putting Family First is the fruit of a four year academic community partnership to investigate the experience of immigrant families settling in Greater Toronto Contributors explore the integration trajectory of immigrant families from newcomers initial reception to their deep involvement in and attachment to their receiving society Chapters examine the interrelated themes of the policy environment children and youth gender labour markets and work and community supports making insightful connections between concepts such as neoliberalism resilience and social capital Putting Family First applies rigorous academic research to solve practical problems illustrating how the family context can be mobilized to facilitate the successful integration of newcomers and offering important guidance to practitioners and policy makers in Canada and beyond

Religion and Civil Society in Europe Joep de Hart, Paul Dekker, Loek Halman, 2013-07-15 Religion is back again in Europe after never having been gone It is manifest in the revival of religious institutions and traditions in former communist countries in political controversies about the relationship between the church es and the state and about the freedom of religion and the freedom to criticize religion and in public unease about religious minorities This book is about religion and civil society in Europe It moves from general theoretical and normative approaches of this relationship via the examination of national patterns of religion state relations to in depth analyses of the impact of religion and secularization on the values pro social attitudes and civic engagement of individuals It covers Europe from the Lutheran North to the Catholic South and from the secularized West to the Orthodox East and Islamic South East with comparative analyses and country studies concluding with an overall Europe USA comparison Integrating Immigrants in Europe Peter Scholten, Han Entzinger, Rinus Penninx, Stijn Verbeek, 2015-06-02 This open access book explores how research and policymaking in the field of migrant integration have developed historically and how this interrelationship plays out in the strongly politicised climate of opinions on migration in Europe It features interdisciplinary theoretical contributions as well as original empirical studies on research policy dialogues at both the EU and country level The chapters study not only how the dialogue between research and policy is structured such as advisory bodies research agencies and ad hoc committees but also how these dialogues affect policymaking and the development of migrant integration research itself as well The analysis reveals profound changes in the dialogue structures associated with the research policy nexus in the domain of migrant integration On the one hand dialogue structures have become more ad hoc often established in response to distinct political events or to specific problems On the other politicisation has not thwarted all efforts to develop more institutionalised dialogue structures between producers and users of knowledge In addition research has contributed to policymaking in very different ways in various European countries This edited volume is unique in this effort to reflect on the impact of research policy dialogues both on the development of migrant integration policies as well as on migrant integration research It will be of importance to scholars in this field as well as to policymakers and other stakeholders involved in migrant integration policymaking

Foreigners, minorities and integration Sarah Hackett, 2015-11-01 This book explores the arrival and development of Muslim immigrant communities in Britain and Germany during the post 1945 period through the case studies of Newcastle upon Tyne and Bremen It traces Newcastle's South Asian Muslims and Bremen's Turkish Muslims from their initial settlement through to the end of the twentieth century and investigates their behaviour and performance in the areas of employment housing and education At a time at when Islam is sometimes seen as a barrier to integration and harmony in Europe this study demonstrates that this need not be the case In what is the first comparison of Muslim ethnic minorities in Britain and Germany at a local level this book reveals that instances of integration have been frequent It is essential reading for both academics and students with an interest in migration studies modern Britain and Germany and the place of Islam in contemporary Europe

The Right to an Age-Friendly City Meghan Joy, 2020-12-03 A context of aging populations and urbanization has sparked a global movement to make urban spaces age friendly The Age Friendly City program developed by the World Health Organization aims to improve local environments for all population groups promote a positive aging identity and empower local policy actors to support senior citizens Despite growing enthusiasm and policy work by local governments worldwide considerable gaps remain These lacunae have led scholars and activists alike to align age friendly city work with the concept of the right to the city In The Right to an Age Friendly City Meghan Joy zeroes in on the intricacies of developing an environment that promotes social and spatial justice for the elderly in Toronto Weaving together the stories struggles and victories of local activists government staff and frontline service providers Joy maps this complex policy area and examines the ways in which age friendly work successfully enhances senior citizens access to services and support in the local environment recognizes the diverse needs of senior citizens in the city and empowers policy actors from local government and the non profit sector to support senior citizens A detailed and timely examination The Right to an Age Friendly City offers both broad and tangible insights into the intermingled political economic cultural and administrative changes needed to protect the rights of senior citizens to access urban space in Toronto and beyond

Why We Believe Alister McGrath, 2025-01-23 Belief surely it's a relic from the past a hangover from a superstitious age that is totally out of sync with today's rational science led culture A timely often bracing and always highly stimulating book Tom Holland author of Dominion and co host of The Rest is History In today's science driven rational world belief is dismissed as an artefact of a bygone era something absurd at best harmful at worst The prevailing narratives paint belief as primitive weird even dangerous But as life grows ever more confusing and our societies more atomised contemplating something bigger than ourselves has never been more vital Alister McGrath offers a fresh perspective on belief presenting it not as a weakness of rational thought but as an essential tool for navigating uncertainty Elegant and thought provoking Why We Believe reveals how belief provides meaning in the face of existential despair how it fosters community and offers solace As society moves beyond the dismissive rhetoric surrounding people of faith here is a powerful manifesto for the re enchantment of the Western mind Scholarly compulsively readable and with gems of information on every page a must read Revd Fergus Butler Gallie author of A Field Guide to the English Clergy
