Handbook of Biblical Social Values, Third Edition John J. Pilch, Bruce Malina, 2016-11-04 Values are culturally specific This handbook explains select biblical social values in their Mediterranean cultural contexts Some examples of values are altruism freedom family centeredness obedience parenting and power Though the English words for the values described here would be familiar to readers e g altruism the meanings of such words differ between cultures In the Mediterranean world for instance altruism is a duty incumbent upon anyone who has surplus It is interpersonal and group specific In the West especially in the United States altruism is impersonal and universally oriented generosity that operates in a highly organized context This handbook not only presents the Mediterranean meanings of these value words but also contrasts those meanings with Western ones

Military Cooperation in Multinational Peace Operations

Joseph Soeters,Philippe Manigart,2009-12-04 This edited volume uses theoretical overviews and empirical case studies to explore both how soldiers cope with the new forms of cultural diversity occurring within various multinational military operations and how their organizations manage them Military organizations like other complex organizations are now operating in an ever more diverse environment with the missions themselves being ever more varied and mostly conducted in a multinational framework Members of the military have to deal with a host of international actors in the theatre of operations and do so in a foreign cultural environment often in countries devastated by war Such conditions demand a high level of intercultural competence It is therefore crucial for military organizations to understand how military personnel manage this cultural diversity This book will be of much interest to students of peace operations military studies international security as well as sociology and business studies Humans, Animals, and the Craft of Slaughter in Archaeo-Historic Societies

Krish Seetah,2018-10-25 In this book Krish Seetah uses butchery as a point of departure for exploring the changing historical relationships between animal utility symbolism and meat consumption Seetah brings together several bodies of literature on meat cut marks craftspeople and the role of craft in production that have heretofore been considered in isolation from one another Focusing on the activity inherent in butcher he describes the history of knowledge that typifies the craft He also provides anthropological and archaeological case studies which showcase examples of butchery practices in varied contexts that are seldom identified with zooarchaeological research Situating the relationship between practice practitioner material and commodity this imaginative study offers new insights into food production consumption and the craft of cuisine Religion-State Encounters in Hindu Domains

Vineeta Sinha,2011-04-07 The historical and empirical project presented here is grounded in a desire to theorize religion state relations in the multi ethnic multi religious secular city state of Singapore The core research problematic of this project has emerged out of the confluence of two domains religion law and bureaucracy and religion and colonial encounters This work has two core objectives one to articulate the actual points of engagement between institutions of religion and the state and two to identify the various processes mechanisms and strategies through which relations across these spheres are sustained The thematic foundations of this book rest on disentangling the complex interactions between religious communities individuals and the various manifestations of the Singapore state relationships that are framed within a culture of bureaucracy This is accomplished through a scrutiny of Hindu domains on the island nation state from her identity as part of the Straits Settlements to the present day The empirical and analytical emphases of this book rest on the author's engagement with the realm of Hinduism as it is conceived structured framed and practiced within the context of a strong state in Singapore today Ethnographically the book focusses on Hindu temple management and the observance of Hindu festivals and processions enacted within administrative and bureaucratic frames Religion and Dangerous Environmental Change

Dieter Gerten,2010 Given the increasing threats of environmental changes to human societies it is imperative to complement technological and economical problem solutions with alternative perspectives from the humanities and the arts This pioneering book attempts to advance climate and environmental sciences by including religion as a microcosm of cultural response to environmental change The authors are renowned in disciplines as diverse as hydrology religious studies theology cultural studies philosophy and visual arts They exemplify how religion can contribute to sustainable mitigation of climate change and to creative adaption to its impacts thus preparing for a deep cultivation of research on religion in environmental change Tourism and Leisure

Harald Pechlaner,Egon Smeral,2014-07-17 The Festschrift in honor of Prof Dr Peter Keller president of the International Association of Scientific Experts in Tourism AIEST since 1994 represents a wide range of tourism research as well as the current state of the ongoing debates in tourism as a scientific research field The aim is to cover multiple topics and trends in travelling and to discuss future development possibilities in the leisure industry
