Macroeconomics, fifth edition Robert J. Barro, 1997-10-20 Robert Barro's Macroeconomics has become the classic textbook presentation of the equilibrium approach to macroeconomics. In its first four editions, this book has shown undergraduates how market-clearing models with strong microeconomic foundations can be used to understand real-world phenomena and to evaluate alternative macroeconomic policies. Moreover, a single unified framework works as well for short-term business fluctuation as for long-term economic growth. This latest edition includes the most recent theoretical and empirical developments in economic growth, recent evidence on the macroeconomics of labor markets and public finance, and up-to-date results on the interplay between nominal and real variables.

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002

European Macroeconomics Robert J. Barro, Vittorio Grilli, 2007-10-01 This major macroeconomics text by Robert Barro and Vittorio Grilli is written from a European perspective. It adopts an open economy approach and incorporates full treatment of European labour and financial institutions and markets, and covers the main macroeconomic theories and policy in relation to the components of the macroeconomic environment.

Thesis and Dissertation Writing in a Second Language Brian Paltridge, Sue Starfield, 2019-07-25 Fully updated and packed with new material, the second edition of Thesis and Dissertation Writing in a Second Language is the ideal guide for non-native speaker students and their supervisors working on writing a thesis or dissertation in English. Considering the purposes of thesis and dissertation writing alongside writer-reader relationships, this book uses accessible language and practical examples to discuss issues that are crucial to successful thesis and dissertation writing. This edition offers insights into the experience of being a doctoral writer, issues of writer identity and writing with authority. Typical language and discourse features of theses and dissertations. Advice on the structure and organisation of key sections. Suggestions for online resources which support writing. Extracts from completed theses and dissertations. Guidance on understanding examiner expectations. Advice on publishing from a PhD. Suitable for students from all disciplines. Thesis and Dissertation Writing in a Second Language is essential reading for non-native speaker students looking to complete a thesis or dissertation in English.

Economics David A. Dieterle, 2017-03-27 A comprehensive four-volume resource that explains more than 800 topics within the foundations of economics: macroeconomics, microeconomics, and global economics, all presented in an easy-to-read format. As the global economy becomes increasingly complex, interconnected, and therefore relevant to each individual in every country, it becomes more important to be economically literate to gain an understanding of how things work beyond the microcosm of the economic needs of a single individual or family unit. This expansive reference set serves to establish basic economic literacy of students and researchers, providing more than 800 objective and factually driven entries on all the major themes and topics in economics. Written by leading scholars and practitioners, the set provides readers with a framework for understanding economics as mentioned and debated in the public forum and media. Each of the volumes includes coverage of important events throughout economic history biographies of the major economists who have shaped the world of economics and highlights of the legislative acts that have shaped the U S economy throughout history The extensive explanations of major economic concepts combined with selected key historical primary source documents and a glossary will endow readers with a fuller comprehension of our economic world Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983 Spatial Agglomeration Dynamics Danny Quah,2002
