World Meetings: Social & Behavioral Sciences, Human Services & Management ,1994 Sketch ,1896 The Decolonisation of Zimbabwe Kate Law,2020-05-21 Rhodesia's illegal Unilateral Declaration of Independence UDI in 1965 is an act that not only shaped regional politics but also had a profound effect on Britain's attempt to retreat from its empire. This edited collection brings together leading voices in the field whose contributions on the role of finance big business and the regional and international actors involved in the country's negotiated independence update long held historiographical wisdoms signalling a revival in economic and diplomatic explanations for the country's decolonisation. In particular they shed fresh light on the roles played in the decolonisation of Zimbabwe by economic private business and political liberation movements. Western and Southern African governments actors that until now have been studied with very limited access to primary sources. As scholarship on Zimbabwe is currently dominated by studies that seek to understand the crisis in which the country has recently found itself this collection acts as a clarion call that reinforces the importance of studies of earlier historical processes. In doing so the book provides a more nuanced understanding of the continuities and discontinuities between Zimbabwe's colonial and postcolonial history and examines the roles played by external governments and individuals in the decolonisation of Zimbabwe. This book was originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History Sir George Trevelyan, Residential Adult Education and the New Age Sharon Clancy,2023-11-29 This book examines the development of British post Second World War short term residential adult education through the lens of the Shropshire Adult Education College 1948-1976 and the tenure of Sir George Trevelyan as its first warden. Trevelyan is acknowledged as the godfather of new age spiritualism in the UK and is credited with the development of eclectic and esoteric learning opportunities in arts traditional crafts culture and ecology. Embodying the spirit of a new national drive for optimism and enterprise in the post war period Trevelyan and his contemporaries at other colleges took risks and innovated in new pedagogical approaches to adult education capturing the imagination of hundreds of students before being stifled by an increasingly restrictive policy framework and financial strictures. The book considers the ideological drivers and tensions behind this unique form of education its inception evolution and virtual demise and seeks to learn from its complex history to inform education in the future World Meetings Outside U.S.A. and Canada ,1999

Permission to Laugh Gregory H. Williams,2012-06-12 Permission to Laugh explores the work of three generations of German artists who beginning in the 1960s turned to jokes and wit in an effort to confront complex questions regarding German politics and history. Gregory H. Williams highlights six of them: Martin Kippenberger, Isa Genzken, Rosemarie Trockel, Albert Oehlen, Georg Herold, and Werner Büttner, who came of age in the mid 1970s in the art scenes of West Berlin, Cologne, and Hamburg. Williams argues that each employed a distinctive brand of humor that responded to the period of political apathy that followed a decade of intense political ferment in West Germany. Situating these artists between the politically motivated art of 1960s West Germany and the trends that followed German unification in 1990 Williams describes how they no longer heeded calls for a brighter future turning to jokes anecdotes and linguistic play in their work instead of overt political messages He reveals that behind these practices is a profound loss of faith in the belief that art has the force to promulgate political change and humor enabled artists to register this changed perspective while still supporting isolated instances of critical social commentary Providing a much needed examination of the development of postmodernism in Germany Permission to Laugh will appeal to scholars curators and critics invested in modern and contemporary German art as well as fans of these internationally renowned artists Monthly Notes of the Astronomical Society of Southern Africa Astronomical Society of Southern Africa,1986 The Messenger ,1993 World Meetings Outside United States and Canada ,1993 World Meetings ,1997
