Case Studies in 21st Century School Administration David L. Gray, 2007 Case Studies in 21st Century School Administration David L. Gray, Agnes E. Smith, 2007-01-18 Case Studies in 21st Century School Administration Addressing Challenges for Educational Leadership presents real problems that confront today's school leaders who must deal with issues of diversity school improvement and limited resources Authors David L Gray and Agnes E Smith give prospective school leaders opportunities to resolve complex issues in K 12 school settings through reflective questions activities and authentic assessment tools for skill development Ethical Leadership and Decision Making in Education Joan Poliner Shapiro, Jacqueline A. Stefkovich, 2021-11-29 The fifth edition of the best selling text Ethical Leadership and Decision Making in Education continues to address the increasing interest in ethics and assists educational leaders with complex dilemmas in today's challenging divided and diverse societies Through discussion and analysis Shapiro and Stefkovich demonstrate the application of four ethical paradigms the ethics of justice critique care and the profession After illustrating how the Multiple Ethical Paradigms may be applied to authentic dilemmas the authors present cases written by graduate students practitioners and academics representing dilemmas faced by educational leaders in urban suburban and rural public and private schools and universities in the U S and abroad Following each case are questions that call for thoughtful complex thinking and help readers apply the Multiple Ethical Paradigms to practical situations New in the Fifth Edition are more than ten new cases that cover issues of food insufficiency the pandemic's effects on diverse school populations a student's sexual orientation transgender students in the university lock down drills for young children refugees in a Swedish school boundaries in high school sports generational differences in an adult diploma school acceptance of animals on campus and hate speech in the academy This edition also includes teaching notes for the instructor stressing the importance of self reflection use of new technologies and global appeal of ethical paradigms and dilemmas This book is a critical resource for aspiring and practicing administrators teacher leaders and educational policy makers Women as Leaders in Education Jennifer L. Martin, 2011-09-22 This up to date candid examination of women's careers in education and leadership in education describes the pitfalls triumphs and future promise of female leaders in education Overall education is a field still dominated by women yet women do not typically pursue or attain leadership positions at the administrative level Research has revealed some of the reasons for this women still experience gender discrimination in education careers experience higher attrition rates and have slower career mobility than do men Additionally women in education are apparently less valued and their performance is more critically evaluated as in other fields This insightful text shows the gender based inequities and discrimination women face when aiming for leadership positions in education and lays out a plan to bring success to this level of the field that is still male dominated Women as Leaders in Education Succeeding Despite Inequity Discrimination and Other Challenges is the result of a team of leading feminist educators and scholars It delves into feminist women's leadership in education from kindergarten to graduate school This two volume work assesses the historical and current political landscape with regard to women hitting a glass ceiling issues of social justice and the unique challenges women face in educational leadership as well as the new field of teacher leadership Bridge Leadership Autumn K. Tooms, Christa Boske, 2010-01-01 This is the first chronicle of the history of social justice as a line of inquiry within the field of educational administration Editors Tooms and Boske have amassed a collective voice of leaders in the field of Educational Administration who have broken barriers and expanded the field through their own work and scholarship within a national and international arena Many of these narratives are the first time tellings of the challenges and successes found in the works of this group of scholars of historic significance This collection is written and organized into practical and easy to digest sections They are part history lesson and part practical teaching tool for those who prepare school leaders Anyone from school leaders to academics interested or charged with unpacking the messy intersections between school leadership and issues of social justice will find inspiration and easy to understand explanations of leadership and equity work within the chapters presented Endorsement Bridge Leadership is a powerful and fascinating new volume that explores the intersections of social justice and educational leadership What distinguishes it from other social justice work is that it is much more personal than most such texts Many of the book's authors share poignant excerpts of their life stories and connect them to the theoretical constructs historical events and political struggles of social justice The foregrounding of these personal stories and the bridges they create with social justice gives the volume a raw power not found in other social justice works I could not put the volume down Ulrich C Reitzug University of North Carolina Greensboro Lopsided Schools Gerard Giordano, 2011-01-16 Lopsided Schools introduces readers to the case method and helps the reader to use the case method to examine the scholastic challenges that critics posed from World War I to the present Some critics have stirred up educators with threats to reduce their budgets or fire them Others upset them with disconcerting questions Should parents demand that their children learn speed reading Should teachers emphasize vocational activities Should principals train their own successors Should superintendents award bonuses to teachers Should employers hire the graduates with the highest scores on standardized tests Should politicians assume greater responsibility for schooling Should journalists publicize information about lopsided schools This book examines these and the numerous other questions that critics posed The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2007 Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders, Handbook of Leadership and Administration for Special Education Jean B. Crockett, Bonnie Billingsley, Mary Lynn Boscardin, 2012-05-31 This book brings together for the first time research informing leadership practice in special education from preschool through transition into post secondary settings It provides comprehensive coverage of 1 disability policy 2 leadership knowledge 3 school reform and 4 effective educational leadership practices Broader in scope than previous books it provides in depth analysis by prominent scholars from across the disciplines of both general and special education leadership Coverage includes historical roots policy and legal perspectives and content supporting collaborative and instructional leadership that support the administration of special education Comprehensive This is the first book to integrate the knowledge bases of special education and educational leadership as these fields impact school improvement and the performance of students with disabilities Chapter Structure Chapters provide a review of the knowledge base as well as recommendations for special education leadership and future research Multicultural Focus Addressing special education leadership within the context of a multicultural society chapters incorporate content related to the diversity of families teachers and students Expertise Chapter authors have made significant contributions to the knowledge base in their specific areas of study such as educational policy special education law and finance school reform organizational management and instructional leadership This book is a reference volume for scholars leaders and policy makers and a textbook for graduate courses in special education educational administration and policy studies
