INSTRUCTIONS: DO NOT ANSWER THE BELOW QUESTIONS – DO ANNOTATION WITH STICKIES – ANNOTATE EVERY 2 TO 3 PARAGRAPHS!

Quick Write:

DO: Write ½ page reflection about: Often, it does not take much to spark a desire for revenge. It can start with a simple insult or an unresolved dispute. You encounter these situations in books, movies, television shows, and in real life. Sometimes, as in this story, a quest for revenge can get out of hand.

There is quite a difference between reading and reading critically. When you read a text critically, you read and reread with a questioning mind, continually asking yourself, "Why this?" and "Why that?" Reading critically requires you to pay attention not only to what a writer is saying but also to how he or she is conveying meaning. By reading a text critically, you can identify and understand the complexities and interrelated elements in a text that casual readers may never notice. Great works of literature reveal their greatness to readers who approach them critically.

The following pages present Edgar Allan Poe's short story "The Cask of Amontillado" on the left. On the right side are comments intended to help you understand the story and questions that a critical reader might ask when reading this text. Many other questions could be asked of the text, and you might think of some of your own as you are reading the story.

I must not only punish, but punish with impunity (freedom from consequences). A wrong is unredressed when retribution overtakes its redresser. It is equally unredressed when the avenger fails to make himself felt as such to him who has done the wrong 1.3.

It must be understood, that neither by word nor deed had I given Fortunato cause to doubt my good will. I continued, as was my wont, to smile in his face, and he

Questions and Comments

1.1 What does the name "Fortunato" suggest? What do you think of a character who will not tolerate insult without seeking revenge?

1.2 Is the narrator addressing a specific character that remains silent? Who might "so well know the nature of [the narrator's] soul"?

1.3 The narrator offers some advice on
