Church Living Communion Engaging Theology Catholic Perspectives:

Church Paul Lakeland, 2009-11-01 Drawing on the wisdom and teaching experience of highly respected theologians the Engaging Theology series builds a firm foundation for graduate study and other ministry formation programs Each of the six volumes Scripture Jesus God Discipleship Anthropology and Church is concerned with retrieving carefully evaluating and constructively interpreting the Christian tradition Comprehensive in scope and accessibly written these volumes used together or independently will stimulate rich theological reflection and discussion More important the series will create and sustain the passion of the next generation of theologians and church leaders Paul Lakeland's recent award winning books on the place of the laity in the contemporary Roman Catholic Church have prepared him well to take on this ecclesiology from below While paying close attention to the classical marks of the Church Lakeland's focus is on what we can learn about the nature of the Church as living communion by examining the values and practices of ordinary believers Following the advice of Bernard Lonergan Lakeland adopts a resolutely inductive approach to ecclesial reflection He explores ten questions that the Church must address both those that affect the internal workings of the faith community and those that have to do with its relationships to other groups religious and secular Finally he offers a constructive proposal for a contextual ecclesiology of the U S Catholic Church that utilizes the images of hospice pilgrim immigrant and pioneer The Interruptive Word R. David Nelson, 2013-07-25 While German Lutheran theologian Eberhard Jüngel 1934 has made a number of significant contributions to contemporaneous discussions of sacramental theology this topic has largely been ignored by interpreters of his thought This study summarizes and evaluates through a close reading of primary and secondary source materials Jüngel's approach to the problem of sacrament R. David Nelson considers Jüngel's claim that the word of God functions sacramentally as it addresses its hearer and analyses his assertion that Jesus Christ is the unique and preeminent sacrament of God for the world Progressing to an exploration of Jüngel's ecclesiology Nelson reveals Jüngel's interesting approach to the question of the church's sacramentality The volume concludes with an investigation into Jüngel's doctrines of baptism and the Lord's Supper The Interruptive Word demonstrates that Jüngel consistently appeals to the category of interruption for describing God's sacramental relation to the world and its actualities concluding that the hegemony of the category of interruption in Jüngel's theology of sacrament raises important questions concerning its coherence and tenability Systematic Theology Thomas P. Rausch, 2016 Systematic theology seeks to understand and render more intelligible the central doctrines of faith and to show how they are related to each other It tries to demonstrate how these doctrines are rooted in Scripture and develop in the history of the church most important it strives to more adequately express and sometimes reinterpret the church's doctrinal tradition always in the interest of better communicating the mystery of salvation and bringing it into a dialogue with culture The present text is intended to be concise and accessible an introduction that explores basic themes in Catholic systematic theology from a biblical historical and contemporary perspective always aware of today's theological pluralism

Anthropology Susan A. Ross, 2012-06-01 Drawing on the wisdom and teaching experience of highly respected theologians the Engaging Theology series builds a firm foundation for graduate study and other ministry formation programs Each of the volumes Scripture Jesus God Anthropology and Church is concerned with retrieving carefully evaluating and constructively interpreting the Christian tradition Comprehensive in scope and accessibly written these volumes used together or independently will stimulate rich theological reflection and discussion More important the series will create and sustain the passion of the next generation of theologians and church leaders What does it mean to be human in the twenty first century Susan Ross explores this question through the lens of human desires for God freedom knowledge love and pleasure but also for power consumer goods self gratification and money Beginning with biblical narratives of human desires she goes on to consider how ancient medieval and modern thinkers have wrestled with the various ways that human beings have sought fulfillment in the world and in God The twenty first century brings new questions and continuing challenges In a world of increasing complexity and fragmentation can we still talk about the self How have feminism and new thinking about sexuality changed the ways we think about ourselves How do we maintain our humanity in the face of monstrous human evil What do the findings of science say about our uniqueness as human beings Anthropology Seeking Light and Beauty offers a path through the many conflicting views of humanity suggesting a fuller way of living as we try to follow the example of Jesus accessible and easy to understand for lay readers as well as undergraduate students researching particular issues or global religious trends Systematic Theology Francis Schussler Fiorenza, John P. Galvin, 2011-05-01 Unique among contemporary resources the landmark Systematic Theology and its distinguished contributors present the major areas or loci of Roman Catholic theology in light of contemporary developments especially the sea change since Vatican II thought the best new historical studies of traditional doctrines and Scripture and the diverse creative impulses that come from recent philosophy and hermeneutics culture and praxis and ecumenical contacts This new volume combines and updates both previous volumes incorporates into the framework nearly twenty years of fresh thought and bibliography in each area and adds revisions to key articles to take account of a diverse fluid and postmodern situation Creating Missional Worship Tim Lomax, 2015-10-01 Creating Missional Worship explores how contemporary context and Anglican liturgical tradition can be fused together to create engaging and transformative worship It addresses a key issue that has arisen in the wake of Fresh Expressions to what extent should worship be shaped by the culture of the day and how far can it stray from core patterns of worship and still be recognisably Anglican Tim Lomax offers imaginative ideas and resources for finding freedom within a framework Using the basic patterns of Common Worship he outlines a contextual approach to creating worship that is incarnational sacramental Trinitarian and revelatory in today's language and cultural forms He offers many examples and illustrations of how liturgy and contemporary culture can meet in fresh and challenging ways Augustine's Early Theology of the Church David C. Alexander, 2008 The nature and development of Augustine's understanding of the church between his conversion 386 and his forced entry into the clergy 391 provides an essential lens to understanding this seminal period of transition and the foundations of his future ecclesial contributions Even so most studies of Augustine's ecclesiology bypass this period starting with the clerical Augustine post 391 In fact research on the young Augustine and the Confessions too often stalls over debates between his neo Platonic or Christian orientation focusing on dichotomies in Augustine or an individualistic Augustine too rigidly labeled This book helps fill these gaps and provides a case study supporting arguments for continuity between the young and the clerical Augustine A careful chronological textual approach to Augustine's early Christian years demonstrates how his ecclesiological thought began during this period and comprised a core component of his first theological synthesis The emergence of his ecclesiological ideas was intimately intertwined with his overall personal religious philosophic and theological development As such it is crucial to our biographical and theological understanding of the great North African and will be of interest to specialists and students alike of Augustine's development Confessions mature ecclesiology and the late antique world Survey on the Foundations of Catholic Theology Winifredo Nierras, 2024-01-10 The Survey on the Foundations of Catholic Theology delves into the fundamental principles that underpin the Catholic faith Exploring the doctrines traditions and teachings this survey aims to unravel the core beliefs that shape the theological landscape of Catholicism From the significance of Scripture and Tradition to the sacramental life and moral teachings this study provides a comprehensive overview offering insight into the bedrock of Catholic theology that guides believers in their spiritual journey
