By Edward Dolnick the Forger's Spell A True Story Of Paperback:

The Forger's Spell Edward Dolnick, 2008 As riveting as a World War II thriller The Forger's Spell is the true story of Johannes Vermeer and the small time Dutch painter Han van Meegeren who dared to impersonate Vermeer centuries later The con man's mark was Hermann Goering one of the most reviled leaders of Nazi Germany and a fanatic collector of art

The Forger's Spell Edward Dolnick, 2008-06-24 As riveting as a World War II thriller The Forger's Spell is the true story of Johannes Vermeer and the small time Dutch painter who dared to impersonate him centuries later The con man's mark was Hermann Goering one of the most reviled leaders of Nazi Germany and a fanatic collector of art It was an almost perfect crime For seven years a no account painter named Han van Meegeren managed to pass off his paintings as those of one of the most beloved and admired artists who ever lived But as Edward Dolnick reveals the reason for the forger's success was not his artistic skill Van Meegeren was a mediocre artist His true genius lay in psychological manipulation and he came within inches of fooling both the Nazis and the world Instead he landed in an Amsterdam court on trial for his life ARTnews called Dolnick's previous book the Edgar Award winning The Rescue Artist the best book ever written on art crime In The Forger's Spell the stage is bigger the stakes are higher and the villains are blacker Goering's Man in Paris Jonathan Petropoulos, 2021-01-01 A charged biography of a notorious Nazi art plunderer and his career in the postwar art world Petropoulos brings Lohse into sharper focus as a personality and axis point from which to explore a network of art dealers collectors and museum curators connected to Nazi looting What emerges from Petropoulos's research is a portrait of a charismatic and nefarious figure who tainted everyone he touched Nina Siegal New York Times Readers of art history and WWII biographies will appreciate this engrossing deep dive into one of the world's most prolific art looters Publishers Weekly Bruno Lohse 1911-2007 was one of the most notorious art plunderers in history Appointed by Hermann Goering to Hitler's art looting agency in Paris he went on to help supervise the systematic theft and distribution of more than thirty thousand artworks taken largely from French Jews and to assist Goering in amassing an enormous private art collection By the 1950s Lohse was officially denazified but was back in the art dealing world offering masterpieces of dubious origin to American museums After his death dozens of paintings by Renoir Monet and Pissarro among others were found in his Zurich bank vault and adorning the walls of his Munich home Jonathan Petropoulos spent nearly a decade interviewing Lohse and continues to serve as an expert witness for Holocaust restitution cases Here he tells the story of Lohse's life offering a critical examination of the postwar art world Real Phonies and Genuine Fakes Nicky Beer, 2022-03-08 What is illusion a deception or a revelation What is a poem the truth or a diverting flash a mirror showing everything but itself Nicky Beer's latest collection of poems is a labyrinthine academy specializing in the study of subterfuge Marlene Dietrich Dolly Parton and Batman are its instructors With an energetic eye she thumbs through our collective history books and her personal one too in an effort to chart the line between playful forms of duplicity and those that are far more insidious Through delicious japey poems that can be read multiple ways and allusions ranging from Puccini's operas to Law Order. Beer troubles the notion of truth. Often we settle for whatever brand of honesty is convenient for us or whatever is least likely to spark confrontation but this Beer knows is how we invite others to weigh in on what kind of person we are. This is how we trick ourselves into believing they're right. Listen to how quiet it is when I lose the self-doubt played for so long. I mistook it for music. Real Phonies and Genuine Fakes asks us to look through the stereoscope which image is the real one. This one or this one just here. With wisdom, humility and a forthright tenderness Nicky Beer suggests that we consider both together they might contribute to something like truth.

Trump and Hitler Henk de Berg, 2024-03-01 This book compares Trump and Hitler as political performance artists. It explores their populist self-staging and rhetorical strategies and explains how they connected with their respective audiences. It also analyses the two men's character, work ethic and management style. In addition, the book addresses seemingly peripheral issues like the reasons behind Hitler's toothbrush moustache and Trump's hairstyle. By demystifying Hitler and Trump, the author throws new light on both of them.

The Forger's Forgery Clay G. Small, 2021-04-20 When Art Mimics Life. Somebody's Going to Get What's Coming to Them. Henry Lindon's flight across the north Atlantic was turbulent and sleepless. His plane has just touched down in Amsterdam where he's come to work as a visiting professor. Lindon is torn about leaving his troubled wife Marylou behind in Dallas but relieved and excited to start a new chapter in a lively city. The taxi drops him off at an elegant building at Roetersstraat 81 where he's greeted by his university liaison and soon to be neighbor, the lovely and spunky art professor Bernadette Gordon. After settling into his apartment, Lindon changes clothes and sets out to explore canals and cafés wondering what the dinner invitation from Bernadette means for his fresh start. But troubles from the past soon cross the Atlantic. Lindon discovers that notorious Dutch art forger Han van Meegeren, born in 1899, is about to play a part in Lindon's own personal drama. With evil closing in, Lindon, Bernadette and Marylou find that secrets of the art world may hold the key to settling old scores and putting a predator away for good. Whether you are familiar with the world of Henry Lindon from author Clay Small's first book Heels Over Head or this is your introduction to his works, you're in for an exciting and unusual international adventure with characters that will live on in your memory long after you've finished the book.

Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice_ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture? This question opens up an important research perspective. In this book, Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information. They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books. Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation, the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science.

Modernism's Other Work Lisa Siraganian, 2015 Modernism's Other Work challenges our view of relationships between aesthetic autonomy and the world of daily life, a conjuncture that Lisa Siraganian demonstrates has often been misunderstood.

in critical studies of modernism Connecting poetry to the visual arts and politics the author provides new ways to think about modernist art s relationship Bunk Kevin Young, 2017-11-14 Longlisted for the National Book Award for Nonfiction There Kevin Young goes again giving us books we greatly need cleverly disguised as books we merely want Unexpectedly essential Marlon James Award winning poet and critic Kevin Young tours us through a rogue s gallery of hoaxers plagiarists forgers and fakers from the humbug of P T Barnum and Edgar Allan Poe to the unrepentant bunk of JT LeRoy and Donald J Trump Bunk traces the history of the hoax as a peculiarly American phenomenon examining what motivates hucksters and makes the rest of us so gullible Disturbingly Young finds that fakery is woven from stereotype and suspicion race being the most insidious American hoax of all He chronicles how Barnum came to fame by displaying figures like Joice Heth a black woman whom he pretended was the 161 year old nursemaid to George Washington and What Is It an African American man Barnum professed was a newly discovered missing link in evolution Bunk then turns to the hoaxing of history and the ways that forgers plagiarists and journalistic fakers invent backstories and falsehoods to sell us lies about themselves and about the world in our own time from pretend Native Americans Grey Owl and Nasdijj to the deadly imposture of Clark Rockefeller from the made up memoirs of James Frey to the identity theft of Rachel Dolezal In this brilliant and timely work Young asks what it means to live in a post factual world of truthiness where everything is up for interpretation and everyone is subject to a pervasive cynicism that damages our ideas of reality fact and art Museum , 2009
