Lonesome Roads and Streets of Dreams Andrew S. Berish, 2024-05-31 Any listener knows the power of music to define a place but few can describe the how or why of this phenomenon In Lonesome Roads and Streets of Dreams Place Mobility and Race in Jazz of the 1930s and 40s Andrew Berish attempts to right this wrong showcasing how American jazz defined a culture particularly preoccupied with place By analyzing both the performances and cultural context of leading jazz figures including the many famous venues where they played Berish bridges two dominant scholarly approaches to the genre offering not only a new reading of swing era jazz but an entirely new framework for musical analysis in general one that examines how the geographical realities of daily life can be transformed into musical sound Focusing on white bandleader Jan Garber black bandleader Duke Ellington white saxophonist Charlie Barnet and black guitarist Charlie Christian as well as traveling from Catalina Island to Manhattan to Oklahoma City Lonesome Roads and Streets of Dreams depicts not only a geography of race but how this geography was disrupted how these musicians crossed physical and racial boundaries from black to white South to North and rural to urban and how they found expression for these movements in the insistent music they were creating For Consideration Of Parental Love And Good Will.pdf Scott William Barker, 2009

Most historical studies bury us in wars and politics paying scant attention to the everyday effects of pop culture Welcome to

America's other history: the arts, activities, common items, and popular opinions that profoundly impacted our national way of life. The twelve narrative chapters in this volume provide a textured look at everyday life, youth, and the many different sides of American culture during the 1930s. Additional resources include a cost comparison of common goods and services, a timeline of important events, notes arranged by chapter, an extensive bibliography for further reading, and a subject index. The dark cloud of the Depression shadowed most Americans' lives during the 1930s. Books, movies, songs, and stories of the 1930s gave Americans something to hope for by depicting a world of luxury and money. Major figures of the age included Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, Irving Berlin, Amelia Earhart, Duke Ellington, the Marx Brothers, Margaret Mitchell, Cole Porter, Joe Louis, Babe Ruth, Shirley Temple, and Frank Lloyd Wright. Innovations in technology and travel hinted at a Utopian society just off the horizon; group sports and activities gave the unemployed masses ways to spend their days; and a powerful new demographic, the American teenager, suddenly found itself courted by advertisers and entertainers. Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory, Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich, 1993. America, History and Life, 2004. Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada.
