Interwar Salzburg Robert von Dassanowsky, Katherine Arens, 2024-02-08 A long overdue reassessment of post 1918 Salzburg as a distinct Austrian cultural hub that experimented in moving beyond war and empire into a modern self consciously inclusive and international center for European culture For over 300 years Salzburg had its own legacy as a city state at an international crossroads less stratified than Europe's colonial capitals and seeking a political identity based in civic participation with its own economy and politics After World War I Salzburg became a refuge Its urban and bucolic spaces staged encounters that had been brutally cut apart by the war its deep seated traditions of citizenship art and education guided its path In Interwar Salzburg contributors from around the globe recover an evolving but now lost vanguard of European culture fostering not only new identities in visual and performing arts film music and literature but also a festival culture aimed at cultivating an inclusive public not an international elite and a civic culture sharing public institutions sports tourism and a diverse spectrum of cultural identities serving a new European ideal
