

Graduation Speech Sample

Good evening friends, family, faculty, and fellow graduates.

As we stand here today, on the brink of a new chapter in our lives, it's hard to believe that it's already been four years (or however long it took us to get here). It seems like just yesterday that we were nervously stepping onto campus, not quite sure what to expect.

But as we look back on the past four years, it's clear that we've come a long way. We've made new friends, learned new things, and grown as individuals. We've faced challenges and overcome them, and we've learned to persevere through difficult times.

And as we move on from this chapter in our lives, I encourage each and every one of us to remember the lessons we've learned and the experiences we've had. These experiences will shape who we are and how we approach the world, and they will serve us well in the years ahead.

But before we get too ahead of ourselves, let's take a moment to reflect on how we got here. I'm sure we all have different stories and experiences, but there are a few things that I think we can all relate to.

For starters, I'm sure we can all agree that college is a lot of hard work. Between classes, assignments, and exams, it's easy to get bogged down and feel overwhelmed. But despite the challenges, we've persevered and made it to this point.

I'm also sure that we've all had moments where we felt lost or unsure of ourselves. It's natural to feel that way, especially when you're trying to navigate a new environment and figure out your place in the world. But despite these moments of uncertainty, we've found our footing and discovered our passions.

And most importantly, I'm sure we can all agree that college has been an amazing experience. We've had the opportunity to learn from some of the best professors in the field, engage in meaningful discussions and debates, and be part of a community of like-minded individuals.

So, as we move on from this chapter in our lives, let's remember to be grateful for the experiences we've had and the people who have supported us along the way. To our parents, who have always believed in us and encouraged us to pursue our dreams, thank you for your unwavering love and guidance. To our teachers and mentors, who have imparted their knowledge and wisdom upon us, thank you for your invaluable guidance and encouragement. And to our friends, who have stood by us through thick and thin, thank you for your friendship and support.

DARE to Say No Max Felker-Kantor, 2024-02-14 With its signature DARE to keep kids off drugs slogan and iconic t-shirts DARE Drug Abuse Resistance Education was the most popular drug education program of the 1980s and 1990s But behind the cultural phenomenon is the story of how DARE and other antidrug education programs brought the War on Drugs into schools and ensured that the velvet glove of antidrug education would be backed by the iron fist of rigorous policing and harsh sentencing Max Felker-Kantor has assembled the first history of DARE which began in Los Angeles in 1983 as a joint venture between the police department and the unified school district By the mid 90s it was taught in 75 percent of school districts across the United States DARE received near universal praise from parents educators police officers and politicians and left an indelible stamp on many millennial memories But the program had more nefarious ends and Felker-Kantor complicates simplistic narratives of the War on Drugs He shows how policing entered US schools and framed drug use as the result of personal responsibility moral failure and poor behavior deserving of punishment rather than something deeply rooted in state retrenchment the abandonment of social service provisions and structures of social and economic inequality
