Much has changed in the world of self taught art since the millennium Many of the recognized masters have died and new artists have emerged Many galleries have closed but few new ones have opened as artists and dealers increasingly sell through websites and social media The growth and popularity of auction houses have altered the relationship between artists and collectors In its third edition this book provides updated information on artists galleries museums auctions organizations and publications for both experienced and aspiring collectors of self taught outsider and folk art Gallery and museum entries are organized geographically and alphabetically by state and city

Darger's Resources Michael Moon,2012-03-12 Moon turns his attention to the artist Henry Darger an eccentric and self taught artist whose work was only discovered after his death Since then the work has become famous but Darger himself has generally been seen as a withdrawn outsider artist whose work may have been the result of mental illness Moon provides a contrasting view of a creative and gifted artist very responsive to the world around him

We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger,2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self taught artists and how they changed American art Artists without formal training who learned from family community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self definition permanently changed the mainstream art world In We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide ranging societal racial and gender based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers Lavishly illustrated throughout We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty three artists including James Castle Thornton Dial William Edmondson Howard Finster Bessie Harvey Dan Miller Sister Gertrude Morgan the Philadelphia Wireman Nellie Mae Rowe Judith Scott and Bill Traylor The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self definition cultural heritage struggle and joy and inequity and achievement At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self taught artists the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race gender class and ability Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum
