Dark Places Barry Curtis, 2009-02-15 Horror films revel in taking viewers into shadowy places where the evil resides whether it is a house a graveyard or a dark forest These mysterious spaces foment the terror at the heart of horror movies empowering the ghastly creatures that emerge to kill and torment With Dark Places Barry Curtis leads us deep inside these haunted spaces to explore them and the monstrous antagonists who dwell there In this wide ranging and compelling study Curtis demonstrates how the claustrophobic interiors of haunted spaces in films connect to the dark places of the human psyche He examines diverse topics such as the special effects ranging from crude to state of the art used in movies to evoke supernatural creatures the structures projections and architecture of horror movie sets and ghosts as symbols of loss amnesia injustice and vengeance Dark Places also examines the reconfiguration of the haunted house in film as a motel an apartment a road or a spaceship and how these re imagined spaces thematically connect to Gothic fictions Curtis draws his examples from numerous iconic films including Nosferatu Psycho The Texas Chainsaw Massacre and The Shining as well as lesser known international works which allow him to consider different cultural ideas of haunting Japanese horror films and their Hollywood remakes such as Ringu and The Ring or Juon and The Grudge come under particular scrutiny as he explores Japanese cinema's preoccupation with malevolent forces from the past Whether you love the splatter of blood or prefer to hide under the couch Dark Places cuts to the heart of why we are drawn to carnage Lighting Dark Places Sue

In the Dark Room Rosanna Maule,Julie Beaulieu,2009 This book examines Duras's contribution to contemporary cinema The dark room in the collection's title refers to one of Duras's metaphors for the writing process la chambre noire as the solitary space of literary creation the place where she struggles to project her internal shadow onto the blank page The dark room is also a metaphor for the film theater and by extension for the filmic experience Duras rejected conventional forms of cinematic address that encourage the spectator to develop a positive identification with the film's diegesis and narrative Her films create unusual rapports between image and sound diegetic and extra diegetic elements and textual and intertextual dimensions of cinematic representation In doing so they allow the film spectator to establish new connections with the screen This collection focuses on the aesthetic conceptual and political challenges involved in Duras's innovative approach to cinematic representation from an interdisciplinary perspective including film and literary theory psychoanalytic analysis music theory gender studies and post colonial criticism The book opens with a theoretical introduction to Duras's cinematic practice and its peculiar position in contemporary cinema and contemporary film theory and is divided into five parts each one devoted to a specific aspect of Duras's films: the interaction between literature and cinema Part One the reconfiguration of the cinematic gaze Part Two and of the image sound relation Part Three the representation of history and memory Part Four and of cultural identity Part Five
