In Truth and Claw Ari Marmell, 2025-06-04 A city in fear Humanity under threat Only otherworldly private eye Mick Oberon can crack the catastrophic case as the fantasy noir series continues Chicago in the 1930s The clouds don't have any silver lining and if they did some mug would have stolen the silver This is Mick Oberon's city And when you're runaway non-human royalty with a shady past it's just as vicious violent and lowdown as life back home in the fae realm of Elphame Unfortunately Chicago's about to become the front runner in that bloody contest Because everything seems to be going sideways down the drain and straight to hell all at once People are dying with very particular puncture marks on their necks and missing several pints of the red stuff gee whatever could that mean Not to mention that Mick's nemesis the vengeful maniacal good witch Orsola might not be as dead as he'd hoped. Then Mick's not quite nemesis the beautiful backstabbing succubus Ramona Webb paints her way back into his picture for reasons unknown. And that's when a vampire shows up in Mick's office asking for his help in stopping an impending nightmarish bloodbath. Some days it just doesn't pay for a paranormal PI to pick up his wand. Fans of Jim Butcher's Dresden Files series will find plenty to like. Publishers Weekly Hallow Point Ari Marmell, 2025-06-02 The hard-boiled non-stop patter-packed fantasy noir series continues as PI Mick Oberon is caught in treasure hunt he can't afford to lose. In 1930s Chicago being a private detective can get you bumped off as easy as breathing. But Mick Oberon isn't your average shamus. He's runaway fae royalty from the Otherworld who hung up his shingle packs a wand instead of a heater, loves warm milk and has a serious iron allergy. Hey a nigh immortal guy's gotta make a living right. That's why Mick agrees to help the cops when someone breaks into the Field Museum. Strange thing is they didn't steal anything. In fact they added something. Something Mick really doesn't want in his town, the Spear of Lugh which grants invincibility in battle to whoever wields it. The problem is some other mug steals it just as fast as it appeared. With the spear in play a whole slew of very heavy hitters from both worlds are coming to the Windy City to claim it as their own. And that means trouble like Mick has never seen before and is unlikely to see again. Because you tend not to see anything when you're stone dead. Among the best urban fantasy novels I have read. Rising Shadow

The Eternal Warrior Ari Marmell, 2025-05-20 In The Eternal Warrior Gilad faces a catastrophic challenge when the most closely guarded secret of his immortal life falls into the hands of a cult of death. For millennia the Sumerian known as Gilad Anni Padma has stood on the front lines between humanity and the vile unnatural things that would see innocence, society or life itself cast down. Gifted and cursed with immortality, he has been a guardian even death cannot long hold. An Eternal Warrior. But Gilad has been laid low, his past, his purpose even his name stripped from him by a mystic ritual gone awry. In his absence the worshippers of Nergal, a cult of death as old as Gilad himself, enact their intricate schemes. Drawn back into this forgotten conflict, aided only by new allies, he does not trust. Gilad must reclaim everything he was while facing an enemy who now has access to his own stolen memories and intends to use that knowledge to reshape not only the Eternal Warrior but the world he has so long protected.

Dead to Rites Ari Marmell, 2025-06-04 Rogue fae royalty turned hardboiled gumshoe Mick Oberon needs to get a dangerous dingus under wraps as the fast and fun fantasy noir series continues. With all the dirty politics, crime and corruption running through the streets like illegal hooch after a G-Man surprise party, 1930s Chicago already has a heap of worry on its big shoulders. But Mick Oberon knows for a fact it can get much, much worse. And it's about to. He should have seen it coming, what with the nasty streak of bad luck he's been carrying around lately. Especially since every grape on the vine has been telling Mick that someone or something has been asking about him around town. But what he never could have seen is the high-class dame with a job for him, a job he can't turn down. Find Ramona Webb, the one woman he could never forget and never forgive. And he'll have to move fast. Because whatever play Ramona is making seems to revolve around a mummy that's the real McCoy and who may just be behind Mick's recent bum breaks. Now Mick just hopes he can get his magical mojo back before this case closes on his very own coffin. Fans of Jim Butcher's Dresden Files series will find plenty to like. Publishers Weekly Hot Lead, Cold Iron Ari Marmell, 2025-06-02 First in the fantasy noir series featuring Mick Oberon, a hard-boiled private investigator who goes where the case leads him, no matter which world it is. Chicago 1932. Crime and corruption rule. From the gutter to the Gold Coast, the city has more dirty dealings than a sticky-fingered card sharp. A man would have to be crazy to go up against that kind of muscle. But PI Mick Oberon is no man. He's a self-exiled fae prince who left the Otherworld for reasons he'd rather not go into. In the mortal realm, he's a tough talking, hard hitting gumshoe packing a quick wit and a large caliber magic wand. And boy, is he ever gonna need them both. Because his newest client is the wife of a heavy-duty mob honcho. She wants Mick to find her daughter, who it turns out was pilfered and replaced with a changeling sixteen years ago. And she wants the investigation kept on the hush-hush. Which is strange because suddenly it seems like everyone and their uncle already has their eyes on Mick's prize. From rival gangsters to the lowest of lowlives to their even more lethal counterparts in the Otherworld, a lot of people and non-people want Mick out of the picture before he solves the mystery. Unfortunately for all of them, Mick Oberon doesn't know the meaning of the word quit. But with this case, he might want to break out the dictionary before he gets killed. Praise for Hot Lead Cold Iron. In this gripping fantastical investigation, Marmell creates an engaging world and an unlikely hero. The potent mix of gangsters, magic, fae politics, and a strega on the warpath makes for a ride that never touches the brakes. Marmell expertly maximizes the thrills, leaving the reader with a lingering desire for a magic wand and a glass of warm milk. Publishers Weekly Starred Review Covenant's End Ari Marmell, 2018-05-29 The Widdershins Adventures come to a thrilling conclusion in an action-packed fantasy in which the young outlaw with a heart of gold and the pesky voice of a god in her ear returns home to face her destiny. After almost a year away from the grand city of Davillon, wandering thief Widdershins has finally come to terms with the pain and grief that drove her to leave. When she returns, all she can hope is that her old friends can forgive her hasty actions. But even that may be too much to ask because home is not what it used to be. The entire city is on edge with unrest and rumors of upheaval spreading through the darkened streets, and Shins is shocked to discover that she already knows the person behind the strife all too well: her dreaded nemesis, Lisette Suvagne. Thanks to an unholy bargain with otherworldly powers, the vindictive Lisette is far more dangerous than before and far too formidable even for Shins and her personal god, Olgun, to confront alone. Now for the sake of her friends, her city, and her own soul, Shins must gather allies from every corner of Davillon, lawful, unlawful, and seriously unlawful, if she hopes to face the greatest challenge of her life. Because the greatest challenge of Widdershins' life might also be the end of it.
