Sharing in the Son's Inheritance Esau McCaulley, 2019-09-05 This book explores the link between Paul's belief that Jesus is Israel's Messiah and his interpretation of the Abrahamic Land Promise in Galatians Countering claims that Paul replaces the Promised Land with the gift of the Spirit or salvation Esau McCaulley argues that Paul expands this inheritance to include the whole earth believing that as the seed of Abraham and David Jesus is entitled to the entire world as his inheritance and kingdom McCaulley argues that scholars have neglected Paul's expanded interpretation of the inheritance of the earth rarely appreciate the role that messianism plays in Galatians and fail to acknowledge that Second Temple authors often portrayed royal and messianic figures as God's means of fulfilling the promises made to Abraham and Israel via the establishment of kingdoms Through a comparison of texts from the Pseudepigrapha apocrypha and the Dead Sea Scrolls with Galatians 3:14-7:21 McCaulley argues Paul's interpretation of Jesus's death is a manifestation of Second Temple messianism because it ends the covenant curses outlined in Deuteronomy and begins the restoration of the inheritance to Abraham's offspring through the establishment of Jesus's worldwide kingdom he concludes that Paul's interpretation of the Abrahamic inheritance is inseparable from his belief that Jesus is Israel's Messiah

A practical exposition of the Church-catechism, several discourses. Together with two discourses, one on confessing Christ before men. The other, the great sin of denying him Matthew Hole, 1732

The Other Christs Candida R. Moss, 2010-05-24 Moss begins by tracing the theme of imitating Jesus through suffering in the literature of the Jesus movement and early church and its application in martyrdom literature She demonstrates the importance of imitating the sufferings of Christ as a practice and ethos in the Jesus movement She then proceeds to the interpretations of the martyr's death and afterlife arguing against the dominant theory that the martyr's death was viewed as a sacrifice and finding that in their post mortem existence martyrs continue to be assimilated to Christ closely resembling the exalted Christ as

Trevor J. Burke,2016-02-11 In this New Studies in Biblical Theology volume Trevor Burke argues that the scripture phrase adopted as sons while a key theological metaphor has been misunderstood misrepresented or neglected He redresses the balance in this comprehensive study of the phrase This volume not only probes a neglected theme it also edifies says D A Carson The Son of God in the Roman World Michael Peppard,2011-07-18 Winner of the 2013 Manfred Lautenschlaeger Award for Theological Promise Michael Peppard examines the social and political meaning of divine sonship in the Roman Empire He begins by analyzing the conceptual framework within which the term son of God has traditionally been considered in biblical scholarship Then through engagement with recent scholarship in Roman history including studies of family relationships imperial ideology and emperor worship he offers new ways of interpreting the Christian theological metaphors of begotten and adoptive sonship Peppard focuses on social practices and political ideology revealing that scholarship on divine sonship has been especially hampered by mistaken assumptions about adopted sons He invites fresh readings of several early Christian texts from the first Gospel to writings of the fourth century By re interpreting several ancient phenomena particularly divine status adoption and baptism he offers an imaginative refiguring of the Son of God in the Roman world Newly Created Children of God Hyung-tae Kim,2025-10-07 This study makes an original contribution to our understanding of the connection between Paul s language of adoption huiothesia and his concept of new creation kaine ktisis Although there has been much research on Paul s use of the adoption metaphor and of his concept of new creation no previous study has paid close attention to the connection between them and what this relationship means for the shape of Pauline theology For example recent studies of ethnicity in Paul often appeal to Abrahamic sonship or divine sonship in Romans and Galatians but the sense of new creation is virtually absent in the arguments The present study attempts to rectify that oversight through a dialogue with the Paul within Judaism school of scholars Ephesians John Paul Heil,2007
