North American Borders in Comparative Perspective Guadalupe Correa-Cabrera, Victor Konrad, 2020-04-07 The northern and southern borders and borderlands of the United States should have much in common instead they offer mirror articulations of the complex relationships and engagements between the United States Mexico and Canada In North American Borders in Comparative Perspective leading experts provide a contemporary analysis of how globalization and security imperatives have redefined the shared border regions of these three nations This volume offers a comparative perspective on North American borders and reveals the distinctive nature first of the overportrayed Mexico U S border and then of the largely overlooked Canada U S border The perspectives on either border are rarely compared Essays in this volume bring North American borders into comparative focus the contributors advance the understanding of borders in a variety of theoretical and empirical contexts pertaining to North America with an intense sharing of knowledge ideas and perspectives Adding to the regional analysis of North American borders and borderlands this book cuts across disciplinary and topical areas to provide a balanced comparative view of borders Scholars policy makers and practitioners convey perspectives on current research and understanding of the United States borders with its immediate neighbors Developing current border theories the authors address timely and practical border issues that are significant to our understanding and management of North American borderlands The future of borders demands a deep understanding of borderlands and borders This volume is a major step in that direction Contributors Bruce Agnew Donald K Alper Alan D Bersin Christopher Brown Emmanuel Brunet Jailly Irasema Coronado Guadalupe Correa Cabrera Michelle Keck Victor Konrad Francisco Lara Valencia Tony Payan Kathleen Staudt Rick Van Schoik Christopher Wilson The Arizona Border Surveillance

Technology Plan and Its Impact on Border Security United States. Congress. House. Committee on Homeland Security. Subcommittee on Border and Maritime Security, 2014 OECD Multi-level Governance Studies Building More Resilient Cross-border Regions Considerations in Governance and Partnerships OECD, 2024-12-18 Supporting the development of cross border regions is a growing priority for many governments across the OECD This reflects the fact that these regions often face significant development challenges related to their proximity to national borders which can constrain regional economic development impede the delivery of cross border services and hamper the co ordination of cross border disaster management This report assesses how multi level governance arrangements can support resilient cross border development It starts by examining why the development of cross border regions in the EU often lags behind non border regions and the multi level governance mechanisms in place to bolster their performance Using the five pilot regions as a basis it then examines cross border governance arrangements through the lens of the OECD Cross border Governance Framework Finally this report includes considerations for subnational national and international policy makers in the OECD and beyond on how they can strengthen cross border governance frameworks and enhance the resilience and socio economic development of

cross border areas Routledge Handbook of Asian Borderlands Alexander Horstmann, Martin Saxer, Alessandro Rippa, 2018-04-09 In Asia where authoritarian developmental states have proliferated statehood and social control are heavily contested in borderland spaces As a result in the post Cold War world borders have not only redefined Asian incomes and mobilities they have also rekindled neighbouring relations and raised questions about citizenship and security The contributors to the Routledge Handbook of Asian Borderlands highlight some of these processes taking place at the fringe of the state Offering an array of comparative perspectives of Asian borders and borderlands in the global context this handbook is divided into thematic sections including Livelihoods commodities and mobilities Physical land use and agrarian transformations Borders and boundaries of the state and the notion of statelessness Re conceptualizing trade and the economy in the borderlands The existence and influence of humanitarians religions and NGOs The militarization of borderlands Causing us to rethink and fundamentally question some of the categories of state nation and the economy this is an important resource for students and scholars of Asian Studies Border Studies Social and Cultural Studies and Anthropology Chapter 12 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Design of Frontier Spaces Carolyn Loeb, Andreas Luescher, 2016-03-09 In a globalizing world frontiers may be in flux but they remain as significant as ever New borders are established even as old borders are erased Beyond lines on maps however borders are spatial zones in which distinctive architectural graphic and other design elements are deployed to signal the nature of the space and to guide if not actually control behaviour and social relations within it This volume unpacks how manipulations of space and design in frontier zones historically as well as today set the stage for specific kinds of interactions and convey meanings about these sites and the experiences they embody Frontier zones organize an array of functions to facilitate the passage of goods information and people and to define and control access Bringing together studies from Asia Africa the Middle East Europe and North America this collection of essays casts a wide net to consider borders of diverse sorts Investigations of contemporary political frontiers are set within the context of examinations of historical borders borders that have existed within cities and virtual borders This range allows for reflection on shifts in how frontier zones are articulated and the impermanence of border emplacements as well as on likely scenarios for future frontiers This text is unique in bringing together a number of scholarly perspectives in the arts and humanities to examine how spatial and architectural design decisions convey meaning shape or abet specific social practices and stage memories of frontier zones that no longer function as such It joins and expands discussions in social science disciplines in which considerations of border practices tend to overlook the role of built form and material culture more broadly in representing social practices and meanings
