China Adapting The Past Confronting The Future:

China Thomas Buoye, 2002 A comprehensive textbook on contemporary China combining original essays by leading experts with excerpts from primary sources the latest scholarship Chinese literature and Western media reports Study Guide to China Thomas M. Buoye, 2003 Insurgencies and Counterinsurgencies Beatrice Heuser, Eitan Shamir, 2016 A study of the evolving national styles of conducting insurgencies and counter insurgency as influenced by transnational trends ideas and practices Writing and Law in Late Imperial China Robert E. Hegel, Katherine N. Carlitz, 2015-07-16 In this fascinating multidisciplinary volume scholars of Chinese history law literature and religions explore the intersections of legal practice with writing in many different social contexts They consider the overlapping concerns of legal culture and the arts of crafting persuasive texts in a range of documents including crime reports legislation novels prayers and law suits Their focus is the late Ming and Qing periods c 1550 1911 their documents range from complaints filed at the local level by commoners through various texts produced by the well to do to the legal opinions penned by China's emperors Writing and Law in Late Imperial China explores works of crime case fiction judicial handbooks for magistrates and legal secretaries popular attitudes toward clergy and merchants as reflected in legal complaints and the belief in a parallel otherworldly judicial system that supports earthly justice The People's Republic of Amnesia Louisa Lim, 2014 One of the best analyses of the impact of Tiananmen throughout China in the years since 1989 The New York Times Book Review Museums in China Tracey Lu, 2013-11-20 From the earliest museums established by Western missionaries in order to implement religious and political power to the role they have played in the formation of the modern Chinese state the origin and development of museums in mainland China differ significantly from those in the West The occurrence of museums in mainland China in the late nineteenth century was primarily a result of internal and external conflicts Westernization and colonialism and as such they were never established solely for enjoyment and leisure Using a historical and anthropological framework this book provides a holistic and critical review on the establishment and development of museums in mainland China from 1840 to the present day and shows how museums in China have been used by a wide range of social political and state actors for a number of economic religious political and ideological purposes Indeed Tracey L D Lu examines the key role played by museums in reinforcing social segmentation influencing the economy protecting cultural heritage and the construction and enhancement of ethnic identities and nationalism and how they have throughout their history helped the powerful to govern the less powerful or the powerless More broadly this book provides important comparative insights on museology and heritage management and questions who the key stakeholders are how museums reflect broader social and cultural changes and the relationship between museum and heritage management Drawing on extensive archival research and anthropological fieldwork as well as the author's experience working as a museum curator in mainland China in the late 1980s Museums in China such will be of great interest to students and scholars working across museology heritage studies tourism studies
