China Hotel Development Innovation Waychinese Edition:

Perfecting China, Inc. Scott Kennedy, Christopher K. Johnson, 2016-06-08 This study examines China's 13th Five Year Plan the most authoritative strategic blueprint for the country's economic policies under Xi Jinping The plan seeks to rebalance the economy toward more advanced technologies greater environmental protection and a stronger social safety net However it does not fundamentally rebalance the relationship between state and market with the government and Chinese Communist Party still left with significant tools to micromanage most aspects of the economy Unless greater emphasis is given to shifting this balance the most likely result will be growth with volatility in which some Chinese companies move up the value added chain but without fundamentally improving the country's overall efficiency and performance

Economy Hotels in China Songshan Sam Huang, Xuhua Michael Sun, 2014-01-10 While economy or budget hotels have been popular in western countries since the end of the Second World War they have only emerged as a sector in their own right in China since the mid 1990s Indeed as a new service industry sector economy hotels in China demonstrate important characteristics which can be used to illustrate and help explain China's current economic progress more generally This book provides a comprehensive overview of the economy hotel sector in China It covers macro level social cultural economic environmental geographic and development issues alongside micro level consideration of the budget hotel companies innovative management and marketing procedures business expansion strategies general hotel management and operation issues as well as an analysis of some leading entrepreneurs in the sector and in depth case studies examining the most successful economy hotel companies in China Huang and Sun argue that the rapid development of budget hotels in China demonstrates how under the influence of globalisation Chinese businesses have become more innovative as they apply successful western business models to China In turn they show that the China model is fundamentally different in terms of its driving force which lies purely in its domestic travel market fuelled by China's continued economic growth There is therefore much to explore about both China's market situation and business practices in the economy hotel sector and this book makes an important contribution to our understanding of China's new business environment Based on extensive fieldwork and investigation Economy Hotels in China will be welcomed by students and scholars of tourism hospitality business studies and Chinese studies but it will also appeal to practitioners of business management in these sectors who are interested in China's development and business opportunities in China

Constructing a Place of Critical Architecture in China Guanghui Ding, 2016-03-09 For the past 30 years The Chinese journal Time Architecture Shidai Jianzhu has focused on publishing innovative and exploratory work by emerging architects based in private design firms who were committed to new material theoretical and pedagogical practices In doing so this book argues that the journal has engaged in the presentation and production of a particular form of critical architecture described as an intermediate criticality as a response to the particular constraints of the Chinese cultural and political context The journal's publications displayed a dual critique a resistant attitude to the dominant modes of commercial building practice characterised by rapid and large scale urban expansion and an alternative publishing practice focusing on emerging independent architectural practitioners through the active integration of theoretical debates architectural projects and criticisms This dual critique is illustrated through a careful review and analysis of the history and programme of the journal By showing how the work of emerging architects including Yung Ho Chang Wang Shu Liu Jiakun and Urbanus are situated within the context of the journal s special thematic editions on experimental architecture exhibition group design new urban space and professional system the book assesses the contribution the journal has made to the emergence of a critical architecture in China in the context of how it was articulated debated presented and perhaps even produced within the pages of the publication itself The protagonists of critical architecture have endeavoured to construct an alternative mode of form and space with strong aesthetic and socio political implications to the predominant production of architecture under the current Chinese socialist market economy To rebel against certain forms of domination and suppression by capital and power is by no means to completely reject them rather it is to use thos

Chinese Muslims and the Global Ummah Alexander Stewart,2016-07-01 The global spread of Islamic movements and the ascendance of a Chinese state that limits religious freedom have aroused anxieties about integrating Islam and protecting religious freedom around the world Focusing on violent movements like the so called Islamic State and Uyghur separatists in China's Xinjiang Province threatens to drown out the alternatives presented by apolitical and inwardly focused manifestations of transnational Islamic revival popular among groups like the Hui China's largest Muslim minority This book explores how Muslim revivalists in China's Qinghai Province employ individual agency to reconcile transnational notions of religious orthodoxy with the materialist rationalism of atheist China Based on a year immersed in one of China's most concentrated and conservative urban Muslim communities in Xining the book puts individuals struggles to navigate theological controversies in the contexts of global Islamic revival and Chinese modernization By doing so it reveals how attempts to revive the original essence of Islam can empower individuals to form peaceful and productive articulations with secular societies and further suggests means of combatting radicalization and encouraging interfaith dialogue As the first major research monograph on Islamic revival in modern China this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Anthropology Islamic Studies and Chinese Studies

The Blue Commons Guy Standing, 2022-07-07 A FINANCIAL TIMES BEST ECONOMICS BOOK OF 2022 A landmark book The Blue Commons is at once a brilliant synthesis a searing analysis and an inspiring call to action David Bollier With remarkable erudition passion and lyricism Guy Standing commands the reader to wake up to the threat posed by rentier capitalism's violent policies for extraction exploitation and depletion of that which is both common to us all but also vital to our survival the sea and all within it Ann Pettifor Shines a bright light on the economy of the oceans directing us brilliantly towards where a sustainable future lies Danny Dorling This is a powerful visionary book essential reading for all who yearn for a better world Jason Hickel The sea provides more than half the oxygen we breathe food for billions of people and livelihoods for hundreds of millions But giant corporations are plundering the world's oceans aided by global finance and complicit states following the neoliberal maxim of Blue Growth The situation is dire rampant exploitation and corruption now drive all aspects of the ocean economy destroying communities intensifying inequalities and driving fish populations and other ocean life towards extinction The Blue Commons is an urgent call for change from a campaigning economist responsible for some of the most innovative solutions to inequality of recent times From large nations bullying smaller nations into giving up eco friendly fishing policies to the profiteering by the Crown Estate in commandeering much of the British seabed the scale of the global problem is synthesised here for the first time as well as a toolkit for all of us to rise up and tackle it The oceans have been left out of calls for a Green New Deal but must be at the centre of the fight against climate change How do we do it By building a Blue Commons alternative a transformative worldview and new set of proposals that prioritise the historic rights of local communities the wellbeing of all people and with it the health of our oceans
