People, Place, Race, and Nation in Xinjiang, China David O'Brien, Melissa Shani Brown, 2022-11-14 In one of the only works drawing on interviews with both Uyghurs and Han in Xinjiang China and postcolonial perspectives on ethnicity nation and race this book explores how forms of banal racism underpin ideas of self and other assimilation and modernisation in this restive region Significant international attention has condemned the CCP's use of forced internment in re education camps as well as its campaign of cultural assimilation In this wider context this book focuses upon the ways in which ethnic difference is writ through the banalities of everyday life who one trusts what one eats where one shops even what time one's clocks are set to Xinjiang being perhaps one of the only places where different ethnic groups live by different time zones Alongside chapters focusing upon the coercive re education campaign and the devastating Rumi Riots in 2009 this book also unpacks how discourses of Chinese nationalism romanticise empire and promote racialised ways of thinking about Chineseness how cultural assimilation Sinicisation is being justified through the rhetoric of modernisation how Islamic sites and Uyghur culture are being secularised and commodified for tourist consumption We also explore Uyghur and Han perspectives including of each other giving insight into the diversity of opinions within both groups Based on many years of living and working in China and fieldwork and interviews specifically in Xinjiang this book will be valuable to a variety of readers interested in the region and Uyghur and Han identity ethnic national identities in contemporary China and racisms in non western contexts

economic development and urban designing for the local and peripheral surroundings The body of research is enormous and has proved to be very beneficial in understanding the theme park as a multiple space in the ever changing context Overseas Chinese Town theme park OCT is one of the most popular tourist sights in China a cultural space which epitomizes the country's cultural business and Shenzhen Special Economic Zone an emerging metropolis As the ultimate icon of Chinese and global cultural representation the theme park has attracted visitors the world over This book presents for the first time an analysis of narratives which surround the park The research of OCT is to shed a cultural political and ideological light on the modern pleasure space constructed and consumed in contemporary China In view of the overwhelming quantity of theme park study in the USA and Europe a shift of orientation in the study of theme parks in China becomes significant as the emerging theme parks in the country are described as springing up like bamboo shoots after a rain As an important study of an important contemporary phenomenon it illustrates in considerable detail the distinctive nature of Chinese theme park development and will be of interest to a range of readers in fields such as cultural studies tourism sociology and human geography Non Western theme parks have attracted very little attention from social scientists even though they can be considered important sites for the examination of the influence and limits of globalization With this important study of the OCT theme park Zhang provides us with a detailed examination of the extent to which the Western model of the theme park is replicated in the Chinese context In this way he provides crucial insights that will be of great interest to students of globalization Professor Alan Bryman University of Leicester The work provides a very readable critical review of the recent development of theme parks in China in particular the Overseas Chinese Town Theme Park at Shenzhen The work is well grounded in a critical understanding of the role of theme parks as cultural texts As an important study of an important contemporary phenomenon it illustrates in considerable detail the distinctive nature of OCT park and will be of interest to a range of readers in fields such as cultural studies tourism sociology and human geography Professor Stephen Williams Staffordshire University

Demystifying China Naomi Standen, 2013 For westerners China's history is often reduced to a choice between timeless Confucian ideals or incomprehensible barbarisms such as footbinding or mass slaughter fueled by generalizations such as China has five thousand years of history China was a Confucian society Chinese women were victims China is a communist country and many more But China is now too globally important to allow such oversimplifications to continue unchallenged and this engaging and deeply knowledgeable volume counters them vigorously In concise and accessible style the contributors scrutinize a range of historical misconceptions that have ramifications for the present and future of China and its relations with the rest of the world They consider how misunderstandings have arisen and present more sophisticated and nuanced interpretations Readers will learn how numerous popular beliefs about China's history are mistaken and what new interpretations can help build the more accurate understandings of present day China that we so badly need By explicitly addressing common misconceptions the book persuades readers to reexamine their assumptions about China's history and thus China in general and begin to see it as a real rather than largely imagined place Contributions by Elif Ak etin Bridie Andrews Tim Barrett Felix Boecking Michael C Brose Marjorie Dryburgh Imre Galambos Stanley E Henning Christian Hess Clara Wing chung Ho Judd Kinzley Fabio Lanza Peter Lorge Julia Lovell Rana Mitter Barbara Mittler Ruth Mostern Peter C Perdue Hai Ren Andres Rodriguez Tansen Sen Elliot Sperling Naomi Standen Wasana Wongsurawat and Ling Zhang
