This volume explores cross cultural encounters with schooling among Chinese immigrant mothers in Canada Using a narrative inquiry approach the author sets out to spotlight the challenges facing immigrant parents and students as they begin to integrate into Western society and culture specifically focusing on aspects of their experience including the intergenerational relationship between students and parents home school relations and interactions with other Chinese immigrant parents Chapters address intercultural differences as a reference point for understanding immigrant parents views on schooling moral education and parenting practices 现代中国,2011 Modern China: All That Matters Jonathan Clements,2013-08-30 In Modern China All That Matters Jonathan Clements presents China as the Chinese themselves see it He explains the key issues of national reconstruction the Cold War the Cultural Revolution and the dizzying spectacle of China's economic reform Clements offers a Chinese perspective on such events as the Handover of Hong Kong and chronicles the historical events that continue to resonate today in Chinese politics economics culture and quality of life A final chapter examines China's role in the global marketplace its indirect effect on foreign economies from Australia to America to Africa and its growing military might with an assessment of the damage done to its environment and population In his most provocative assertion Clements suggests that China's contemporary problems are not the trials of a developing nation but a possible vision of our own future This accessible and readable book will appeal both to students and general readers giving a fascinating introduction to modern China and what matters most about it Stranger In My Heart Mary Monro,2018-06-09 Stranger In My Heart is about the search for understanding oneself answering the question Who am I by seeking to understand the currents that sweep down the generations eddy through one's own persona and continue on palpable but often unrecognised My father fought at the Battle of Hong Kong in December 1941 was taken prisoner by the Japanese and then escaped in February 1942 making his way across 1200 miles of inhospitable country to reach China's wartime capital at Chongqing Seventy years later I retraced his steps in an effort to understand a man who had died when I was 18 leaving a lot of unanswered questions behind My book is the quest that I undertook to explore my father's life in the context of the Pacific War and our relationship with China A picture of a man of the greatest generation slowly unfolds a leader a 20th Century Great but a distant father As I delve into his story and research the unfamiliar territory of China in the Second World War the mission to get to know the stranger I called Dad resolves into a mission to understand how my own character was formed As I travel across China the traits I received from my father gradually emerge from their camouflage The strands of the story are woven together in a flowing triple helix with biography travelogue and memoir punctuated with
