Courting Pandemonium:

The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans Susan Larson, 2013-09-05 The literary tradition of New Orleans spans centuries and touches every genre its living heritage winds through storied neighborhoods and is celebrated at numerous festivals across the city For booklovers a visit to the Big Easy isn't complete without whiling away the hours in an antiquarian bookstore in the French Quarter or stepping out on a literary walking tour Perhaps only among the oak lined avenues Creole town houses and famed hotels of New Orleans can the lust of A Streetcar Named Desire the zaniness of A Confederacy of Dunces the chill of Interview with the Vampire and the heartbreak of Walker Percy's Moviegoer begin to resonate Susan Larson's revised and updated edition of The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans not only explores the legacy of Tennessee Williams and William Faulkner but also visits the haunts of celebrated writers of today including Anne Rice and James Lee Burke This definitive guide provides a key to the books authors festivals stores and famed addresses that make the Crescent City a literary destination

The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The New Orleans of Fiction: A Research Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i.e. class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included

Courting Pandemonium Fredrick Barton, 1986 When Marshall McIntire the coach of the boy's high school basketball team allows a talented girl Barbara Jeanne Bordelon to play it stirs up conflict between local feminists and a group of fundamentalists

Chinese Postman Brian Castro, 2024-10-01 Abraham Quin is in his mid seventies a migrant thrice divorced a one time postman and professor a writer now living alone in the Adelaide Hills In The Chinese Postman he reflects on his life with what he calls the mannered and meditative inaction of age offering up memories and anxieties obsessions and opinions his thoughts on solitude writing friendship and time He ranges widely with curiosity and feeling digressing and changing direction as suits his experience and his role as a collector of fragments and a surveyor of ruins He becomes increasingly engaged in an epistolary correspondence with Iryna Zarebina a woman seeking refuge from the war in Ukraine As the correspondence opens him to others the elaboration of his memories tempers his melancholy with a playful enjoyment in the richness of language and a renewed appreciation of the small events in nature This understanding of the experience of old age is something new and important in our literature As Quin comments In Australia the old made way for the young It guaranteed a juvenile legacy

Something in Common Ann Brewster Dobie,1991-03-01 The nineteen stories that this memorable collection comprises are a powerful testament to the continuing vitality of the literary tradition in Louisiana Something in Common includes work by such well known Louisiana writers as Walker Percy Ernest Gaines Shirley Ann Grau and Andr Dubus as well as stories by younger writers whose reputations are still being established Together the stories provide a remarkable record of the vigor of fiction in Louisiana as the twentieth century draws to a close Though contemporary these stories are a result of the habit of telling tales that goes back to the earliest days of the state s history They come from writers who may now live in Maine or California but who remember that our stories become a mirror in which we can see ourselves and know who we are and where we have come from The stories have in common a fundamental belief in the power of the written word to define a particular place and time They testify to the rich culture of the past when Louisiana s ways set it apart and to present that is pulling the state to be part of social forces once foreign to its ways They reveal a society of several races and many histories with fading definitions of traditional roles and changing family patterns Additionally these stories depict the changes brought on by merging the old with the new They rehearse the familiar themes of good evil freedom and reality with a voice not heard in the Louisiana of the past To establish tradition they bring a fresh point of view Something in Common remembers the past shows us the present and points the way to the future
