Cowboy Life on the Sidetrack Frank Benton, 1903 To the readers of this little booklet, I wish to say that while some things in the story seem overdrawn, yet I have endeavored to write it entirely from a cowboy standpoint. To the sheepmen of the West, I want to say that I couldn't have written this story true to the cowboys' character without making a great many reflections on sheepmen, and I want to tender my apologies in advance for anything they may consider offensive, as some of my old-time and dearest friends in the West are among the large sheep owners. But I have been a cowboy and worked with the cowboys for thirty-two years, and have written the things set down here just as they came from the cowboys' lips on a stock train, as we were waiting on sidetracks. The names of the cowboys used are the actual nicknames of cowpunchers whom I worked with on Wyoming ranges twenty years ago and will be recognized by lots of old timers
