

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a vast, arid landscape. A winding, light-colored road or path snakes through the reddish-brown, hilly terrain. In the distance, a small white building is visible on a hill. The sky is a pale, hazy orange. The overall mood is one of solitude and journey.

Dare To Journey With Henry Nouwen:

Dare to Journey with Henri Nouwen Charles Ringma, 2014-02-27 Written as a set of conversations with Henri Nouwen these daily readings will transport you from a state of spiritual restlessness and seeking to retreat renewal reevaluation and prayer Includes a bibliography notes a brief introduction to Henri Nouwen and an index for easy reference Henri Nouwen and Soul Care Wil Hernandez, 2008 In examining Henri Nouwen's approach to the ministry of soul care and spiritual formation at close range we can conclude that his holistic and integrative style is essentially drawn from his sophisticated understanding of the coinherence of spirituality with psychology ministry and theology Henri Nouwen's ministry is characterized by a ministry of integration primarily because he first of all embodied a spirituality of integration His ministry was but an overflow of his spirituality Unquestionably Nouwen ministered out of who he was as a person a person of deep integrity The author contends that Henri Nouwen's work of soul care and spiritual formation is never about techniques Neither is it about programs and curricula important as they are in ministry More importantly it is definitely not about roles even though multiple roles have been attached to his person Henri Nouwen Wil Hernandez, 2006 Genius Born of Anguish Michael W. Higgins, Kevin Burns, 2012 This illustrated biography presents the life and legacy of Henri Nouwen through interviews with his friends and family including his brother Laurent I Arche founder Jean Vanier author Robert Ellsberg and writer Ronald Rolheiser The book was conceived as a companion volume to a CBC radio series airing in September 2012 to mark the anniversary of Nouwen's untimely death at the age of sixty four An extensive photo section is included Coauthor Kevin Burns This book is an exploration of ideas about spirituality about vulnerable mental health and about becoming more fully what we are compelled to be It's about parents and children of all ages it's about asking for help and what you do with that help once it's offered It's about discovering new strength in your weaknesses And all of that within the context of Nouwen's overarching reminder about all creation's link to the Creator Book jacket Making Housing Happen, 2nd Edition Jill Suzanne Shook, 2012-09-19 The growing housing crisis cries out for solutions that work As many as 35 million Americans experience homelessness each year half of them women and children One in four renters spends more than half of their income on rent and utilities more than 30 percent is considered unaffordable With record foreclosures and 28 percent of homes underwater middle and low income homeowners are suffering Many congregations want to address this daunting problem yet feel powerless and uncertain about what to do The good news is that churches are effectively addressing the housing crisis from Washington State to New York City where an alliance of sixty churches has built five thousand homes for low income homeowners with virtually no government funding or foreclosures This book not only presents solid theological thinking about housing but also offers workable solutions to the current crisis true stories by those who have made housing happen Each story features a different Christian denomination geographic area and model adaptive reuse cohousing cooperative housing mixed income mixed use inclusionary zoning second units community land trusts sweat

equity and more Making Housing Happen is about vision and faith relationships and persistence Its remarkable stories will inspire and challenge you to action This new edition includes significant new material especially in light of the ongoing mortgage crisis

Being Truly Human Mark Mah,2012-10-12 Our busy exterior may be a cover up for an undernourished interior soul Modern life is so packed with things to do that we have not learned to be truly human It is difficult to nurture the spiritual life in a media saturated world filled with relentless information ongoing activities material wants worrisome uncertainties and seductive addictions Being Truly Human challenges readers to give space in their busy life for God to do the work of transformation in the inner self It takes inspiration from the Desert Fathers of the fourth and fifth centuries whose directness simplicity and concreteness to life s struggles provide a fresh perspective for modern saints Like the desert saints modern Christians are challenged to begin a spiritual odyssey in the wilderness of their soul to become their true selves To be truly human means the freedom to love in concrete acts of humility and hospitality acts which are truly lacking in our world today The practice of solitude and silence will lead us to be indifferent to the crying needs of our false selves and to give God our undivided attention which is necessary for the spiritual formation of our true selves

The Living Church ,2001

Experiencing Grace Mark Ekstrom,2024-02-12 When Jesus called his first disciples he asked them What are you looking for Jesus knew that we are all searching for something a relationship with God a grace filled way of living and the answers to life s most important questions such as Who am I Too often we seek those answers in the wrong places We can search the world and come up empty only to find that what we were seeking was inside of us all along In a part spiritual autobiography and part guided meditation certified spiritual director Mark Ekstrom invites believers to join him on a journey of self discovery and faith while offering insight into his spiritual ups and downs doubts wonderings and the growth that has brought him to where he is today Organized as a thirty day pilgrimage with daily meditations spiritual seekers are guided through reflection questions scripture readings spiritual disciplines and prayer in order to experience God s love and grace more fully foster a deeper spirituality and continue to build a strong personal relationship with God Experiencing Grace leads believers on an introspective thirty day journey to encourage an awareness of God not as a theological concept but as a transforming relationship
