Dark Back Of Time Vintage International:

Dark Back of Time Javier Marías, 2013-04-23 From one of Spain's greatest writers and the international bestselling award winning author of The Infatuations comes an odyssey into the nature of identity and of time that weaves together fact and fiction into a completely original and unforgettable hybrid. Stylish, cerebral, Marías is a startling talent. His prose is ambitious, ironic, philosophical, and ultimately compassionate. The New York Times called by its author a false novel, Dark Back of Time begins with the tale of the odd effects of publishing All Souls, his witty and sardonic 1989 Oxford novel. All Souls is a book Marías swears to be fiction but which its characters, the real-life dons and professors and bookshop owners who have recognized themselves, fiercely maintain to be a roman clef. With the sleepy world of Oxford set into fretful motion by a world that never existed, Dark Back of Time begins an odyssey into the nature of identity and of time. Marías weaves together autobiography, a legendary kingdom, strange, ghostly literary figures, halls of mirrors, a one-eyed pilot, a curse in Havana, and a bullet lost in Mexico.

Fictionalism: The Art of Teaching Truth Disguised as Lies Johan Dahlbeck, 2023-11-20 Fictionalism confronts the dual epistemological nature of education. In this book, Johan Dahlbeck argues that all education at bottom concerns a striving for truth initiated through fictions. This foundational aporia is then interrogated and made sense of via Hans Vaihinger's philosophy of as if and Spinoza's peculiar form of exemplarism. Using a variety of fictional examples, Dahlbeck investigates the different dimensions of educational fictionalism, from teacher exemplarism to the basic educational fictions necessary for getting started in education in the first place. Fictionalism will be a valuable resource for anyone interested in the philosophical foundations of education.

Literary Studies and the Philosophy of Literature Andrea Selleri, Philip Gaydon, 2016-12-01 This book is about the interaction between literary studies and the philosophy of literature. It features essays from internationally renowned and emerging philosophers and literary scholars challenging readers to join them in taking seriously the notion of interdisciplinary study and forging forward in new and exciting directions of thought. It identifies that literary studies and the philosophy of literature address similar issues: What is literature? What is its value? Why do I care about characters? What is the role of the author in understanding a literary work? What is fiction as opposed to non-fiction? Yet genuine interdisciplinary interaction remains scarce. This collection seeks to overcome current obstacles and seek out new paths for exploration.
