teenaged son Cyril didn't know how to mourn him. But five years later a single bone and a distinctive gold chain are recovered and Pierre is at last declared dead. Which changes everything. At the reading of the will it turns out that instead of a funeral Pierre wanted a roast at a bar no one knew he frequented. The Only Caf in Toronto's east end. He'd even left a guest list that included one mysterious name Ari. Cyril now working as an intern for a major national newsroom and assisting on reporting a story on homegrown terrorism tracks down Ari at the bar and finds out that he is an Israeli who knew his father in Lebanon in the 80s. Who is Ari? What can he reveal about what happened to Pierre in Lebanon? Is Pierre really dead? Can Ari even be trusted? Soon Cyril's personal investigation is entangled in the larger news story all of it twining into a fabric of lies and deception that stretches from contemporary Toronto back to the massacre at the Sabra and Shatila camps in Lebanon in September 1982. The Only Caf is both a moving mystery and an illuminating exploration of how the traumatic past if left unexamined shadows every moment of the present.
