Dark Way To Paradise Dantes Inferno In Light Of The Spiritual Path:

Dark Way to Paradise Jennifer Doane Upton, 2005-03 Dante's Inferno is often presented today in lurid gothic terms as if it were no more than an entertaining demonic freak show Alternately it is taken as merely a cultural and political commentary on Dante's own place and time cast in allegorical terms But the Inferno and the Divine Comedy as a whole are much more than that The human passions and the Mystery of Iniquity of which they are expressions are fundamentally the same in any place and time the Inferno presents not so much a history of sin as a catalogue of the archetypes of sin the fundamental ways in which all of us are tempted to betray the human form Based on the works of a number of the Greek Fathers on the writings of several members of the Traditionalist School notably Frithjof Schuon and Rene Guenon and on the kind of wide personal experience of the violation of the human form that is available to anyone in these times with both the requisite discernment rooted in love and the courage to keep his or her eyes open Jennifer Doane Upton has once again seen Dante's Inferno as it really is It is the record of the struggle of the human mind will and emotions to discover and name by the grace of God the sins resident in the human soul As both a traditional representation and a contemporary revisioning of the examination of conscience individual and collective Dark Way to Paradise is at once an exegetical masterpiece and a handbook of demonology of concrete use to any true physician of the soul In its direct application of metaphysical principles to infernal psychology it is unique among Dante commentaries And in a time like ours when the Western Church appears to be dissolving before our eyes to save again what Dante himself saved out of the great medieval Christian synthesis has never been so timely

F. C. Baur's Synthesis of Böhme and Hegel Corneliu Simut, 2014-10-16 In this book Professor Simu shows how Christian theology started to be understood as a Gnostic philosophy of religion in the thought of the 19th century scholar F C Baur Although Baur was seen traditionally as a theologian and biblical exegete Simu argues that he was in fact a philosopher of religion and it was his philosophical reading of Christian theology that informed his biblical preoccupations Specifically Baur's perspective on Christian theology was heavily influenced by Jakob Böhme's esoteric theosophy and Hegel's religious philosophy in some key issues such as creation Lucifer dualism and the connection between spirit and matter coupled with that between philosophy and religion

American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Narratives Across Borders Manju Jaidka, 2016-04-26 This volume is centred around the idea that the aim of literature is to build bridges to bring people together and to highlight underlying similarities despite the apparent differences in world literatures. As such the book focuses on the moral purpose of literature and its tendency to overcome divisive forces. It supports the idea of cosmopolitanism a re working of the ancient Indian ideal of Vasudhaiva Kuttumbakam or the world is my home a concept close to the African notion of ubuntu which refers to an open society as against a small enclosed one and relates to the essence of being human and working for the benefit of a larger community. The book uses examples from texts across geographical and cultural borders beginning with classics like the Indian epics the Panchatantra the Kathasaritsagar and the Arabian Nights before moving on to contemporary texts in the age of information technology. Although these may originate against diverse backdrops they have a commonality that cannot be denied. The stories we tell the tales we love to hear and repeat all share certain features which reach out across boundaries of time and space thus bridging the gap between people and places. Living in today's globalized world there is a need to study literature in a broader perspective and to be aware that though stories may be rooted in a particular time and place they are still a part of the world heritage and comprise what is called world literature. The book will be of particular interest to scholars studying the art of storytelling as well as the lay reader passionate about literature.

The Journey Alessandra Raed, David Baikie, 2020-12-30 The Journey is a theatre play inspired by some of the concepts of The Divine Comedy which is a long narrative poem written by Italian poet Dante Alighieri in the early 1300. The poem has an imaginative vision of the afterlife and describes Dante's travels through the three places Inferno Purgatory and Paradise while allegorically the poem represents the soul's journey towards God. The poem is also a representation of the medieval Western world view of Christianity. The conception of the poem also helped the development of the Western Church in the 14th Century. The Journey follows a personal journey through the afterlife lived by David Baikie an Australian war veteran who hit the bottom of suicidal depression in his early 30s. Using the structure of the poem the play is also divided into three parts Inferno Purgatory and Paradise and underlines David's fears emptiness distress and suicidal thoughts during his time in the Army and the recognition of the worst time of his life just after leaving the Army due to his illness. The message of the play serves to show awareness to suicide and depression and the horrible feelings and thoughts that go along with it and that affect most people in our contemporary world. Our culture is haunted by the unholy ghost of suicide the ones who surrender are mercilessly judged by society and those who don't are at risk of contagion. How then do we help those on the edge of self destruction. Through theatre The human spirit is magnificently resilient. Choice is a signature of our species. We choose to live and sometimes we choose to die but most times we make choices just to prove choice is possible. Looking at suicide through theatre and accepting there is a choice it is a good choice In Dante s work Virgil the Roman poet who takes Dante through his journey is presented as the human reason Beatrice Dante s ideal woman is presented as the divine knowledge In the play the leading role of Dante is played by David Baikie who had recently discovered theatre as an art form of surviving and a life changing experience Virgil still symbolises the reason who constantly checks on Dante s thoughts showing him what he would have found on his way out of this life if he actually had left earlier Beatrice in the play represents the true love an almost spiritual sense of love that has not much to do with the love as we know it but the love that is higher than our consciousness can possibly reach The Divine Comedy tells Dante s journey through the three realms of the dead Virgil guides Dante through Hell and Purgatory and Beatrice guides him through Heaven Beatrice was a Florentine woman Dante had met in childhood He admired her from afar in a courteous love tradition way In The Journey Dante David walks the dark road of hell recognizes the sacrifice and lessons of Purgatory and finally in Paradise he understands the reason we all are and must be alive in our own time That surrounded by love and small acts of everyday heroism towards other people we can actually choose to survive the darkness and to find light
