Dangerous Donations Northern Philanthropy And Southern Black Education 1902 193:

Dangerous Donations Eric Anderson, Alfred A. Moss, 1999 Dangerous Donations explores the important limitations on the power of these foundations and their agents The northern philanthropies had to move cautiously and conservatively seeking the cooperation of southern whites whenever possible They believed African Americans could not be excluded from education and must be prepared for productive participation in the South whatever its social system for the safety of the region and the nation as a whole Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

New Life for Historically Black Colleges and Universities Vann R. Newkirk, 2014-01-10 In December 2008 Georgia state senator Seth Harp ignited controversy when he proposed merging two historically Black colleges with nearby predominantly white colleges to save money Less than a year later Mississippi governor Haley Barbour sought to unite Mississippi's three predominantly Black colleges These efforts kindled renewed interest in historically Black colleges and universities HBCUs across the nation and the globe In this study HBCU officials and faculty attempt to identify the challenges that HBCUs face explore the historic origin of HBCU management systems and identify models of success that will improve the long term viability of the HBCU By analyzing HBCUs within a larger framework of American higher education and the cultural context in which HBCUs operate these essays introduce a new paradigm in the quest to ensure that HBCUs continue to play an important role in the education of Americans of all races

Anthropology and the Racial Politics of Culture Lee D. Baker, 2010-03-03 An account of how anthropology has responded to and helped shape ideas about race and culture in the United States and how its ideas have been appropriated to different ends

The North Carolina Historical Review, 2003 In the Face of Inequality Melissa E. Wooten, 2015-06-11 A quarter of black Americans earn college degrees from black colleges yet questions about the necessity of black colleges abound In the Face of Inequality dissects the ways in which race and racism combined to shape the experiences of America's black colleges in the mid twentieth century In a novel approach to this topic Melissa E Wooten combines historical data with a sociological approach Drawing on extensive quantitative and qualitative historical data Wooten argues that for much of America's history educational and social policy was explicitly designed to limit black colleges organizational development As an alternative to questioning the modern day relevance of these schools Wooten asks readers to consider how race and racism precludes black colleges from acquiring the resources and respect worthy of them

Policy Patrons Megan E. Tompkins-Stange, 2020-07-29 Policy Patrons offers a rare behind the scenes view of decision making inside four influential education philanthropies the Ford Foundation the W K Kellogg Foundation the Bill Melinda Gates Foundation and the Eli and Edythe Broad Foundation The outcome is an intriguing thought provoking look at the impact of current philanthropic efforts on education Over a period of several years Megan E Tompkins Stange gained the trust of key players and outside observers of these four organizations Through a series of confidential interviews she began to explore the values ideas and beliefs that inform these foundations strategies and practices The picture that emerges reveals important differences in the strategies and values of the more established foundations vis vis the newer more activist foundations differences that have a significant impact on education policy and practice and have important implications for democratic decision making In recent years the philanthropic sector has played an increasing role in championing and financing education reform Policy Patrons makes an original and invaluable contribution to contemporary discussions about the appropriate role of foundations in public policy and the future direction of education reform Good Intentions David H. Smith, 2005 Besides helpful editorial material this work includes ten papers that were presented in a seminar sponsored by the Center on Philanthropy at Indiana Univ part of the IU School of Liberal Arts at Indiana Univ Purdue Univ Indianapolis All of the essays address philanthropy its definition relationships motives forms history and precepts Amy Kass discusses what philanthropy meant to Booker T Washington largely education in black self help What it meant to Jane Addams Paul Pribbenow explains is the common work of citizens Secular standards for the morality of philanthropy are the subject of essays by Patricia Werhane and Paul Schervish and by David Craig in the best of the essays Religious standards for the moral aspects of philanthropy are the subject of essays by Elliot Dorff Jewish Philip Turner Protestant and John Langan Catholic David Hammack provides a fascinating history of American nonprofit organizations The final essay by William Sullivan gives readers reason to worry because American inequality is increasing at the same time that effective democratically based philanthropy is decreasing Those who can learn much from this book include not only philanthropic givers and takers such as foundation executives college administrators and church leaders but also moral philosophers theologians and government officials Summing Up Recommended Lower level undergraduates and above general readers General Readers Lower division Undergraduates Upper division Undergraduates Graduate Students Researchers Faculty Professionals Practitioners Reviewed by J M Betz Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2001
