Dante Philomythes And Philosopher Man In The Cosmos Cambridge Paperback Library:

Dante Philomythes and Philosopher Patrick Boyde,1981 This book is devoted to a full and lucid exposition of Boyde's ideas. In the first two parts the author presents a systematic account of the universe as Dante accepted it and explains the processes of creation and generation as they operate in the non human parts of the cosmos. Dr Boyde then shows how the two processes combine in Dante's theory of human embryology and how this combination affects the issues of love, choice and freedom. The third and last part of the book consolidates these expository sections with a generous selection of quotations from Dante's authorities and from his own works in prose. At the same time the book offers far more than a clear account of Dante's cosmology and anthropology. Dr Boyde is interested in Dante's ideas in so far as they inspired and gave shape to the Divine Comedy. Furthermore in every chapter he demonstrates how the relevant concepts and habits of thought were transmuted into imagery, symbolism and dramatic scenes or simply transformed by the energy and concision of Dante's poetic style. The Dante Encyclopedia, Valuation in Criticism and Other Essays F. R. Leavis,1986-07-17 This volume gathers together some of F. R. Leavis's earliest work with the things he was working on before his death as well as a representative sample of pieces reflecting the concerns he developed throughout his writing life. This material from the whole span of a long writing career shows both the continuity of his pre-occupations and important respects in which his judgements changed. In an introductory essay Professor Singh discusses each piece and relates it to the development of Leavis's ideas. The reader can trace his concern for standards of critical valuation as it evolved through studies of T. S. Eliot, D. H. Lawrence, William Empson, George Eliot, Henry James, W. B. Yeats, I. A. Richards and others. Leavis's well-known reflections on Marxism are also included. Dante's Inferno, The Indiana Critical Edition Dante Alighieri,1995-06-22 Presents a verse translation of Dante's Inferno along with ten essays that analyze the different interpretations of the first canticle of the Divine Comedy. The Cambridge Review,1983 Vols 1-26 include a supplement. The University Pulpit vols 1-26 no 1-661 which has separate pagination but is indexed in the main vol. Encyclopedia of Medieval Philosophy Henrik Lagerlund,2010-12-07 This is the first reference ever devoted to medieval philosophy. It covers all areas of the field from 500-1500 including philosophers, philosophies, key terms and concepts. It also provides analyses of particular theories plus cultural and social contexts. Of Paradise and Light Donald R. Dickson, Holly Faith Nelson,2004 This collection examines intertextual intersections in the works of Henry Vaughan and John Milton and considers their aesthetic, philosophical or political implications. The theoretical pluralism of the volume reveals the variety and complexity of textual relations in the words of these early modern authors. Some of the essays focus on the author's conscious creation of intertext; others explore the reader's negotiation of books within books while still others examine the linguistic effect of textual intersections. The essays not only consider material borrowing but also explore the absorption of concepts or formal structures from antecedent texts. The volume not only adds to the debate on Milton's iteration, duplication and renovation of precursor texts but represents the first collection of original essays on the poetry and prose of Henry Vaughan essays authored by experts in the field Donald Dickson is Professor of English at Texas A M University Holly Faith Nelson is Assistant Professor of English at Trinity Western University Angels George J. Marshall,2015-08-13 In the 1990s alone more than 400 works on angels were published adding to an already burgeoning genre Throughout the centuries angels have been featured in among others theological works on scripture studies in comparative religions works on art architecture and music philological studies philosophical sociological anthropological archeological and psychological works and even a psychoanalytical study of the implications that our understanding of angels has for our understanding of sexual differences This bibliography lists 4 355 works alphabetically by author Each entry contains a source for the reference often a Library of Congress call number followed by the name of a university that holds the work More than 750 of the entries are annotated Extensive indexes to names subjects and centuries provide further utility Women in Early British and Irish Astronomy Mary

Brück,2009-07-25 Careers in astronomy for women as in other sciences were a rarity in Britain and Ireland until well into the twentieth century The book investigates the place of women in astronomy before that era recounted in the form of biographies of about 25 women born between 1650 and 1900 who in varying capacities contributed to its progress during the eighteenth nineteenth and early twentieth centuries There are some famous names among them whose biographies have been written before now there are others who have received less than their due recognition while many more occupied inconspicuous and sometimes thankless places as assistants to male family members All deserve to be remembered as interesting individuals in an earlier opportunity poor age Placed in roughly chronological order their lives constitute a sample thread in the story of female entry into the male world of science The book is aimed at astronomers amateur astronomers historians of science and promoters of women in science but being written in non technical language it is intended to be of interest also to educated readers generally Dark Romanticism Silvia Riccardi,2025-07-10 This book explores the dark regions of Romantic imagination in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century literature and art It uncovers the palpable and pleasing anxiety about the human body in the works of Henry Fuseli William Blake and Mary Shelley focusing on the negotiations of pleasure and pain life and death beauty and monstrosity Each of the works examined revolves in some manner around the breakdown of an idealized body in order to illuminate the transition from organic to fragmented form This approach involves reorienting conventional accounts of Romanticism around the emergence of a visual paradigm Engaging with cultures of print aesthetic discourse anatomical art as well as natural historical knowledge circulating in England at the turn of the century Dark Romanticism cultivates visual literacy and argues that literary and pictorial elements are inseparable when imagination is at work
