19th and 20th Century Europe or for anyone with an interest in the region In Europe's Shadow Robert D. Kaplan, 2016-11-01 Sweeping and replete with alluring detail a haunting yet ultimately optimistic examination of the human condition as found in Romania Alison Smale The New York Times Book Review From the New York Times bestselling author Robert D Kaplan named one of the world's Top 100 Global Thinkers by Foreign Policy magazine comes a riveting journey through one of Europe's frontier countries and a potent examination of the forces that will determine Europe's fate in the postmodern age Robert Kaplan first visited Romania in the 1970s when he was a young journalist and the country was a bleak Communist backwater It was one of the darkest corners of Europe but few Westerners were paying attention What ensued was a lifelong obsession with a critical often overlooked country a country that today is key to understanding the current threat that Russia poses to Europe In Europe's Shadow is a vivid blend of memoir travelogue journalism and history a masterly work thirty years in the making the story of a journalist coming of age and a country struggling to do the same Through the lens of one country Kaplan examines larger questions of geography imperialism the role of fate in international relations the Cold War the Holocaust and more Here Kaplan illuminates the fusion of the Latin West and the Greek East that created Romania the country that gave rise to Ion Antonescu Hitler's chief foreign accomplice during World War II and the country that was home to the most brutal strain of Communism under Nicolae Ceaușescu Romania past and present are rendered in cinematic prose the ashen faces of citizens waiting in bread lines in Cold War era Bucharest the Bârgan Steppe laid bare by centuries of foreign invasion the grim labor camps of the Black Sea Canal the majestic Gothic church spires of Transylvania and Maramureș Kaplan finds himself in dialogue with the great thinkers of the past and with the Romanians of today the philosophers priests and politicians those who struggle to keep the flame of humanism alive in the era of a resurgent Russia Upon his return to Romania in 2013 and 2014 Kaplan found the country transformed yet again now a traveler's destination shaped by Western tastes yet still emerging from the long shadows of Hitler and Stalin In Europe's Shadow is the story of an ideological and geographic frontier and the book you must read in order to truly understand the crisis Europe faces from Russia and from within The Habsburgs Martyn Rady, 2020-08-25 The definitive history of a powerful family dynasty who dominated Europe for centuries from their rise to power to their eventual downfall In The Habsburgs Martyn Rady tells the epic story of a dynasty and the world it built and then lost over nearly a millennium From modest origins the Habsburgs gained control of the Holy Roman Empire in the fifteenth century Then in just a few decades their possessions rapidly expanded to take in a large part of Europe stretching from Hungary to Spain and parts of the New World and the Far East The Habsburgs continued to dominate Central Europe through the First World War Historians often depict the Habsburgs as leaders of a ramshackle empire But Rady reveals their enduring power driven by the belief that they were destined to rule the world as defenders of the Roman Catholic Church guarantors of peace and patrons of learning The Habsburgs is the definitive history of a remarkable dynasty that forever changed Europe and the world Crossing Central

Europe Helga Mitterbauer, Carrie Smith-Prei, 2017-01-01 This volume studies elements of Austro Hungarian or Central European culture that were common across linguistic national and ethnic communities and shows how some of these commonalities survived or were transformed by the turmoil of the 20th century two world wars a major depression between the wars Stalinism and the Iron Curtain Connecting the Dots in World History, A Teacher's Literacy Based Curriculum Chris Edwards, 2015-12-04 In his previously written articles and books Chris Edwards has argued that Teaching should be considered a field that is separate from both the field of Education and from the content area fields Teaching is a field which synthesizes content and method for classroom application All of the other major intellectual fields have a canon of works which practitioners can learn from and add to but Teaching does not The Connecting the Dots in World History A Teacher's Literacy Based Curriculum series changes this by showing how effective a teacher generated curriculum can be These books can inspire other teachers to create their own curriculums and inspire a change in the way that the public views teachers and teaching

Three German Women Erika Esau, 2021-05-11 This book presents the life stories of three women of the German speaking realm whose lives inspired the author directly mathematician Maria Weber Steinberg 1919 2013 journalist Irmgard Rexroth Kern 1907 1983 and Viennese art historian Fr Dr Anna von Spitzm ller 1903 2001 The lives of these three women serve as emotional mirrors to the cultural transformations and tumultuous history of the 20th century Their stories tell of the hardships struggles and victories of intellectual European women in this era Each woman was related to men who played a prominent role in European cultural life men who received some recognition in history books As intellectual professionals these women in contrast received very few public accolades for their important achievements Placing them in the cultural context of the times in Germany and Austria the book highlights the traumatic choices imposed on ordinary people by political and social circumstances over which they had no control Along with the women's individual stories the chapters focus on overarching themes including educated women's roles in European society narratives of perseverance in confronting Nazism and specific historical background describing the incidents affecting their life trajectories

Interwar Salzburg Robert von Dassanowsky, Katherine Arens, 2024-02-08 A long overdue reassessment of post 1918 Salzburg as a distinct Austrian cultural hub that experimented in moving beyond war and empire into a modern self consciously inclusive and international center for European culture For over 300 years Salzburg had its own legacy as a city state at an international crossroads less stratified than Europe's colonial capitals and seeking a political identity based in civic participation with its own economy and politics After World War I Salzburg became a refuge Its urban and bucolic spaces staged encounters that had been brutally cut apart by the war its deep seated traditions of citizenship art and education guided its path In Interwar Salzburg contributors from around the globe recover an evolving but now lost vanguard of European culture fostering not only new identities in visual and performing arts film music and literature but also a festival culture aimed at cultivating an inclusive public not an international elite and a civic culture sharing public institutions sports tourism and a diverse spectrum of cultural identities serving a new European ideal
