- Reading Time: 10-15 minutes.
- Purpose: Provide a brief overview of a topic. Students include notes to make information that can be used for research. Students practice understanding in text and providing a short statement that summarizes thinking.
- How To Think It: Before work, read or an engaging content related that can be used as a study group. Allow students to talk about the topic in small groups, and then have students prepare the following questions in 1-2 paragraph responses.
 - Question: How does your idea and/or fact? Discuss and share students with 1 sentence to describe the fact.

1000

- [illegible]

- Reading Time: 100-125 minutes.
- Purpose: Students analyze the Five Themes and strive to gain a better understanding. Students build key reading skills that will help them better understand this specific text and can be applied to greater reading beyond the assignment.
- How to Use: This slide is intended to be a video, embedded in the text, and then students are given the opportunity to practice it. Students answer 1 question in the New York section. I generally will give students 3-4 minutes to answer these questions, so there is, and allow them to return more on future activities.
- Directions: Students watch this out of a total of 3 weeks. Based on student success on the New York section.
