Citizen Of The World Suffering And Solidarity In The 21st Century:

Becoming a Citizen of the World Donald H. Dunson, James A. Dunson III, 2013 This study of the nature of our moral obligations to alleviate suffering on a global level addresses many of the vexing questions that face practitioners of Christian compassion how do we avoid a kind of poverty tourism or slacktivism in our response to suffering particularly far from home How do we respond authentically and effectively in our strategies for solidarity with the poor and the underprivileged Using personal anecdotes as well as philosophical and theological reflection Donald and James Dunson emphasize the power of moral argument as well as personal experience in addressing what can seem an insurmountable catalog of evils and suffering in the world Approaching these issues from a number of backgrounds academic philosophy pastoral counseling theology social science and narrative approaches Dunson and Dunson have created a text perfect for use with high school and college classrooms immersion groups parish study groups and service learning programs Study Guide to the Encyclical Letter of Pope Francis, The Mescher, Marcus, 2021 Fratelli Tutti sets out the pope's vision for a postpandemic world This study edition helps readers pray with the text reflect on it and look for connections with the canon of Catholic social teaching and ultimately leads us toward action that builds communities of belonging and solidarity The Routledge Handbook of Hellenistic Philosophy Kelly Arenson, 2020-06-09 Hellenistic philosophy concerns the thought of the Epicureans Stoics and Skeptics the most influential philosophical groups in the era between the death of Alexander the Great 323 BCE and the defeat of the last Greek stronghold in the ancient world 31 BCE The Routledge Handbook of Hellenistic Philosophy provides accessible yet rigorous introductions to the theories of knowledge ethics and physics belonging to each of the three schools explores the fascinating ways in which interschool rivalries shaped the philosophies of the era and offers unique insight into the relevance of Hellenistic views to issues today such as environmental ethics consumerism and bioethics Eleven countries are represented among the Handbook's 35 authors whose chapters were written specifically for this volume and are organized thematically into six sections The people history and methods of Epicureanism Stoicism and Skepticism Earlier philosophical influences on Hellenistic thought such as Aristotle Socrates and Presocratics The soul perception and knowledge God fate and the primary principles of nature and the universe Ethics political theory society and community Hellenistic philosophy's relevance to contemporary life Spanning from the ancient past to the present this Handbook aims to show that Hellenistic philosophy has much to offer all thinking people of the twenty first century Peace, Reconciliation and Social Justice Leadership in the 21st Century H. Eric Schockman, Vanessa Hernández, Aldo Boitano, 2019-09-23 Bringing together leading scholars and practitioners from the worlds of leadership followership transitional justice and international law this research provides a blueprint of how people led bottom up grassroots efforts can foster reconciliation and a more peaceful world On My Country and the World Mikhail Sergeevich Gorbachev, 2000 One of the most important and intriguing figures of the 20th century sheds light on Russia's 1917 revolution 1991 breakup and 21st century future

21st-Century Statecraft Nayef R.F. Al-Rodhan, 2022-01-01 From civilisational frontier risks associated with new challenges like disruptive technologies to the shifting nature of great power conflicts and subversion the 21st century requires a new approach to statecraft In 21st Century Statecraft Professor Nayef Al Rodhan proposes five innovative statecraft concepts He makes the case for a new method of geopolitical analysis called meta geopolitics and for dignity based governance He shows how in an interdependent and interconnected world traditional thinking must move beyond zero sum games and focus on multi sum and symbiotic realist interstate relations This requires a new paradigm of global security premised on five dimensions of security and a new concept of power just power which highlights the centrality of justice to state interests These concepts enable states to balance competing interests and work towards what the author calls reconciliation statecraft Throughout Professor Al Rodhan brings his philosophical and neuroscientific expertise to bear providing a practical model for conducting statecraft in a sustainable way

Educating “Good” Citizens in a Globalising World for the Twenty-First Century MURRAY PRINT, Chuanbao Tan, 2016-12-14 What is needed to be a good citizen for the twenty first century And how can schools and curricula address this question This book addresses these questions and what it means to be a good citizen in the twenty first century by exploring this concept in two different but linked countries China is a major international power whose citizens are in the midst of a major social and economic transformation Australia is transforming itself into an Asian entity in multiple ways and is influenced by its major trading partner China Yet both rely on their education systems to facilitate and guide this transformation as both countries search for good citizens The book explores the issue of what it means to be a good citizen for the 21st century at the intersection between citizenship education and moral education The issue of what constitutes a good citizen is problematic in many countries and how both countries address this issue is vitally important to understanding how societies can function effectively in an increasingly interconnected world The book contends that citizenship education and moral education in both countries overlap on the task of how to educate for a good citizen Three key questions are the focus of this book 1 What is a good citizen in a globalizing world 2 How can good citizenship be nurtured in schools 3 What are the implications of the concept of good citizen in education particularly the school curriculum Murray Print PhD and Chuanbao Tan PhD are professors from the University of Sydney Australia and Beijing Normal University China respectively Both are national leaders within their respective countries and they have brought together a group of leading Australian and Chinese citizenship educators to explore these key questions
