Explaining Tort and Crime Matthew Dyson, 2022-07-21 Tracing almost 200 years of history Explaining Tort and Crime explains the development of tort law and criminal law in England compared with other legal systems Referencing legal systems from around the globe it uses innovative comparative and historical methods to identify patterns of legal development to investigate the English law of fault doctrine across tort and crime and to chart and explain three procedural interfaces criminal powers to compensate timing rules to control parallel actions and convictions as evidence in later civil cases Matthew Dyson draws on decades of research to offer an analysis of the field examining patterns of legal development visible as motifs in the law of many legal systems

On Crime, Society, and Responsibility in the Work of Nicola Lacey Iyiola Solanke, 2021 Few contemporary scholars have done more in their work to develop the idea of responsibility than Nicola Lacey She ranks alongside thinkers and writers such as HLA Hart and Antony Honor in developing approaches to understanding responsibility Like these authors the influence of her work has spread beyond academia to change the perception of responsibility amongst practitioners Both Hart and Honor have during their lifetime had volumes dedicated to their work This book does the same for Nicola Lacey marking her ongoing influence and accomplishments in the common law world through a collection of essays by leading international scholars reflecting and interrogating her contribution to understanding criminal responsibility Additionally the book aims to promote the best legal scholarship on responsibility in the common law world and inspire the brightest legal scholars through a collection of essays designed to mark Professor Lacey's ongoing contribution to the understanding of criminal responsibility The role of Professor Lacey's work in this area as well as others cannot be overlooked her scholarship includes not only a prize winning biography of HLA Hart himself but numerous articles and tomes on the subject culminating with her most recent work In Search of Criminal Responsibility Ideas Interests and Institutions OUP 2016 This Festschrift one of few common law publications to pay homage to the erudition of a female jurist can be seen as a continuation of the themes in this book via reflection and interrogation of her work by leading scholars on the topic The Festschrift will therefore not only be a celebration of her work but also an attempt to take forward intellectual engagement with the topic of responsibility by continued engagement with her ideas Each author brings new ideas to bear on her work touching upon important aspects of responsibility that are current in the scholarship categorization frameworks for understanding criminal responsibility and the relationships between them women in criminal law the history of criminal law blameworthiness and ascriptions of responsibility moral responsibility the role of politics and political economy Nicola Lacey is a School Professor of Law Gender and Social Policy From 1998 to 2010 she held a Chair in Criminal Law and Legal Theory at the LSE she returned to the LSE in 2013 after spending three years as Senior Research Fellow at All Souls College and Professor of Criminal Law and Legal Theory at the University of Oxford She has held a number of visiting appointments most recently at Harvard Law School and the Australian National University She is an Honorary Fellow of New College Oxford and University College Oxford and a Fellow of the British Academy In 2011 she was awarded the Hans Sigrist Prize by the University of Bern for outstanding scholarship on the function of the rule of law in late modern societies and in 2018 an Honorary Doctorate by the University of Edinburgh In 2017 she was awarded a CBE for services to Law Justice and Gender Politics

Philosophy Theories Social and Social Media American Book Publishing Record ,2006 The Relationship Between State and Individual Responsibility for International Crimes Béatrice I. Bonafè,2009 This book offers a unique comparison between state and individual responsibility for international crimes and examines the theories that can explain the relationship between these two regimes The study provides a comprehensive and systematic analysis of the relevant international practice from the standpoint of both international criminal law and in particular the case law of international criminal tribunals and state responsibility The author shows the various connections and issues arising from the parallel establishment of state and individual responsibility for the commission of the same international crimes These connections indicate a growing need to better co ordinate these regimes of international responsibility The author maintains that a general conception according to which state and individual responsibility are two separate sets of secondary rules attached to the breach of the same primary norms can help to solve the various issues relating to this dual responsibility This conception of the complementarity between state and individual responsibility justifies co ordination and consistent application of these two different regimes each of which aims to foster compliance with the most important obligations owed to the international community as a whole Right of Privacy Act of 1967: April 4-6, 19-21, May 17-19, 1967. pp. 111-753 United States.
