Correctional Management Change And Control In Correctional Organizations:

Correctional Management David Duffee, 1980 The Management of Correctional Institutions Marilyn D. McShane, Franklin P. Williams, 1993 Section 1 pages 1 to 68 presents an overview of the literature on prison management and the results of a national survey of wardens which enquired into actual management styles problem solving techniques and decision making approaches The national survey aimed to determine how much the literature reflected the wardens management practices Findings showed that corrections management largely reflects the literature in that it has inconsistencies an emphasis on personnel experience and an inward focus These results were used to develop a perspective focusing on a humane and caring relationship between manager and staff Section 2 pages 72 to 301 contains abstracts of the 100 most important works both essay and research on correctional institution management Correctional Organization and Management Robert M. Freeman, 1999 Bridges the gap between critical elements of organisational theory and psychosocial issues Explains the evolution of corrections related public policy and corrections organisational behaviour and structure over the past 200 years Also leads to an understanding of the ethical change management and 21st century challenges correctional managers and leaders must be prepared to address The Changing Career of the Correctional Officer Don A. Josi, Dale K. Sechrest, 1998-03-10 This is an introductory text on the changing nature of correctional officer careers focusing on personnel management and organizational issues SNI National Criminal Justice Reference Service (U.S.), 1979 Doing Prison Work Elaine M Crawley, 2013-01-11 This book provides a much needed sociological account of the social world of the English prison officer making an original contribution to our understanding of the inner life of prisons in general and the working lives of prison officers in particular As well as revealing how the job of the prison officer and of the prison itself is accomplished on a day to day basis the book explores not only what prison officers do but also how they feel about their work In focusing on how prison officers feel about their work this book makes a number of interesting revelations about the essentially domestic nature of much of the work they do about the degree of emotional labour invested in it and about the performance nature of many of the day to day interactions between officers and prisoners Finally the book follows the prison officer home after work showing how the prison can spill over into their home lives and family relationships Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in different types of prisons including interviews with prison officers wives and children as well as prison officers themselves this book will be essential reading for all those with an interest in how prisons and organisations more generally operate in practice Correctional Management David Duffee, 1986 This volume is concerned with change control in correctional systems with the management of correctional organizations Understanding Prison Staff Jamie Bennett, Ben Crewe, Azrini Wahidin, 2013-05-13 The past decade has seen dramatic growth in every area of the prison enterprise Yet our knowledge of the inner life of the prison remains limited This book aims to redress this research gap by providing insight into various aspects of the daily life of prison staff It provides a serious exploration of their work and in doing so will seek to draw attention to the variety value and complexity of work within prisons This book will provide practitioners students and the general reader with a comprehensive and accessible guide to the contemporary issues and concerns facing prison staff Correctional Administration and Change Management Martha Henderson Hurley, Dena Hanley, 2010-06-02 Change is an inevitable part of any correctional institution as new trends and initiatives constantly bombard the system However as budgetary constraints increasingly require correctional agencies to do more with less a paradigm shift in the way they operate is imperative to ensure success Correctional Administration and Change Management exam Discretion, Community, and Correctional Ethics John Kleinig, Margaret Leland Smith, 2001 Is it possible to develop and instill a professional ethic for prison personnel that in partnership with formal regulatory constraints will mediate relations among officers staff and inmates or are the failures of imprisonment as an ethically constrained institution so deeply etched into its structure that no professional ethic is possible The contributors to this volume struggle with this central question and its broader and narrower ramifications
