Desolation Peak Jack Kerouac, 2022-10-11 Something will happen to me on Desolation Peak I can feel it In the summer of 1956 Jack Kerouac hitchhiked from Mill Valley CA to the North Cascades to spend two months serving as a fire lookout for the US Forest Service Taking only the Diamond Sutra for reading material he intended to spend his time in deep contemplation and to achieve enlightenment He wrote in his journal that he planned to concentrate on emptiness of self other selves living beings and universal self In letters to friends he proclaimed Something will happen to me on Desolation Peak I can feel it Kerouac's experience on Desolation Peak forms the climax of his novel The Dharma Bums and has also been depicted in part 1 of Desolation Angels and a chapter in his nonfiction book Lonesome Traveler None of these versions offers a full true picture however and for that reason Desolation Peak is essential reading What separates Kerouac from all other writers is the depth that he went in exploring his own consciousness and what will prove his most enduring legacy is the record he left of that exploration revealing the psyche of a sensitive tortured artist grappling with himself in the mid 20th Century The highlight of Desolation Peak is the journal he kept starkly revealing the depth of his poverty the extremity of his mood swings and the ongoing arguments with himself over the future direction of his life his writing and faith Along with the journal he worked on a series of projects including Ozone Park another installment of the Duluoz Legend beginning in 1943 after his discharge from the Navy The Martin Family an intended sequel to The Town and the City and Desolation Adventure a series of sketches that became part 1 of Desolation Angels In writing it Kerouac was re-committing himself to his more experimental then
