Climate Changed A Personal Journey Through The Science:

Climate Changed Philippe Squarzoni, 2014-04-08 What are the causes and consequences of climate change When the scale is so big can an individual make any difference Documentary diary and masterwork graphic novel this up to date look at our planet and how we live on it explains what global warming is all about With the most complicated concepts made clear in a feat of investigative journalism by artist Philippe Squarzoni Climate Changed weaves together scientific research extensive interviews with experts and a call for action Weighing the potential of some solutions and the false promises of others this groundbreaking work provides a realistic balanced view of the magnitude of the crisis that An Inconvenient Truth only touched on Climate Changed is printed on FSC certified paper from responsibly managed environmentally sound sources Find teaching guides for Climate Changed and other titles at abramsbooks.com/resources Teaching Writing in the Age of Catastrophic Climate Change Justin Everett, Russell Mayo, 2024-11-25 Catastrophic storms searing heat waves crumbling waterfronts warming oceans air fouling forest fires and mass extinction have become facts of life Under these conditions it is difficult to imagine that the global industrial civilization will continue in its present form This requires us to reconsider the subject of ecocomposition from a new perspective What does it mean to teach college writing in the face of this sobering reality The introduction reviews the history of ecocomposition and reframes it in light of the apocalyptic turn in climate discourse over the last quarter century as well as the role that ecocomposition theory can play in framing these discussions Teaching Writing in the Age of Catastrophic Climate Change is organized into four sections The first section considers the environmental narrative from the viewpoint of climate justice while the second reframes pedagogies of place in light of the climate catastrophe The third section examines the intersections of writing studies and the natural sciences while the fourth section entertains the personal and emotional dimensions of teaching ecocomposition within the framework of catastrophic climate change If we have been successful these chapters provide a starting place for having sobering discussions in our classrooms and considering what ecocomposition means in this unsettling age Research Handbook on Communicating Climate Change David C. Holmes, Lucy M. Richardson, 2020-12-25 Drawing together key frameworks and disciplines that illuminate the importance of communication around climate change this Research Handbook offers a vital knowledge base to address the urgency of conveying climate issues to a variety of audiences EcoComix Sidney I. Dobrin, 2020-10-02 Exploring image and imagination in conjunction with natural environments the animal and the human this collection of essays turns the ecocritical and ecocompositional gaze upon comic studies The comic form has a long tradition of representing environmental rhetoric Through discussions of comics including A D New Orleans After the Deluge We3 Concrete and Black Orchid these essays bring the rich work of ecological criticism into dialogue with the multi faceted landscape of comics graphic novels web comics cartoons and animation The contributors ask not only how nature and environment are portrayed in these texts but also how these textual forms inform how we come to know nature and environment or what we understand those terms to represent Interdisciplinary in approach this collection welcomes diverse approaches that integrate not only ecocriticism and comics studies but animal studies posthumanism ecofeminism queer ecology semiotics visual rhetoric and communication ecoseeing image text studies space and spatial theories writing studies media ecology ecomedia and other methodological approaches The Cambridge Companion to The Essay Kara Wittman,Evan Kindley,2022-11-03 The book studies the history and theory of the essay and its social political and aesthetic contexts Facing Gaia Bruno Latour,2017-07-24 The emergence of modern sciences in the seventeenth century profoundly renewed our understanding of nature For the last three centuries new ideas of nature have been continually developed by theology politics economics and science especially the sciences of the material world The situation is even more unstable today now that we have entered an ecological mutation of unprecedented scale Some call it the Anthropocene but it is best described as a new climatic regime And a new regime it certainly is since the many unexpected connections between human activity and the natural world oblige every one of us to reopen the earlier notions of nature and redistribute what had been packed inside So the question now arises what will replace the old ways of looking at nature This book explores a potential candidate proposed by James Lovelock when he chose the name Gaia for the fragile complex system through which living phenomena modify the Earth The fact that he was immediately misunderstood proves simply that his readers have tried to fit this new notion into an older frame transforming Gaia into a single organism a kind of giant thermostat some sort of New Age goddess or even divine Providence In this series of lectures on natural religion Bruno Latour argues that the complex and ambiguous figure of Gaia offers on the contrary an ideal way to disentangle the ethical political theological and scientific aspects of the now obsolete notion of nature He lays the groundwork for a future collaboration among scientists theologians activists and artists as they and we begin to adjust to the new climatic regime Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A.
