De Neui, 2012-06-01 What happens when an expatriate missionary is thrust into a context where the standard of living is so divergent that perceived or actual wealth suddenly becomes the strongest draw of attraction What actual message is communicated through the wordless witness of the Western Christian missionary lifestyle Is attention to so called good news now so financially focused that other foundational issues become overshadowed This issue becomes even more complicated when the missionary arrives clueless about personal privilege ignorant of the envy of others and carries the mistaken attitude that others think similarly SEANET proudly presents Complexities of Money and Missions in Asia for all who are asking such questions From seven different indigenous and expatriate perspectives this volume deals with the perceptions of money specifically from those seeking to serve obediently in the Buddhist contexts of Asia SEANET serves as a networking forum wherein groups and individuals can meet to reflect and strategize together on topics particular to their collective mission SEANET does not promote one particular strategy or one particular theology but seeks to learn from models of hope that show what God is doing around the world Each year the annual SEANET conference brings together over one hundred and fifty practitioners who are privileged to live and serve throughout the Buddhist world The chapters of this volume represent seven of those voices from the network      Decolonizing Mission Partnerships Taylor Walters Denyer, 2020-06-26 We all know that healthy partnerships are essential to fruitful boundary crossing ministries but how exactly do we create them What barriers must be overcome and what self examination must we do How do the legacies of colonialism racism and unhealed trauma impact missional collaborations today In this doctoral thesis Denyer reflects on these questions as she examines the history of relational dynamics between American and Congolese United Methodists in the North Katanga Conference DR Congo By surveying memoirs magazines and journals and conducting in depth interviews Denyer presents a complex and multifaceted example of a partnership that is in the process of decolonizing More than just a history lesson Decolonizing Mission Partnerships presents the questions hard truths pitfalls and toxic assumptions we must face when attempting to be in mission together      The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L. Bock, 2013-06-14 The Cape Town

Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students

Western Christians in Global Mission Paul Borthwick,2012-10-03 Missions specialist Paul Borthwick brings an urgent report on how the Western church can best continue in global mission Providing current analysis of the state of the world and Majority World opinion Borthwick offers concrete advice for Western churches who want to avoid the pitfalls of colonialism

World-Shaped Mission Janice Price,2013-07-12 This landmark study is the result of a three year project by the Mission and Public Affairs Division of the Archbishops Council to develop a new better narrative of mission for the church World Shaped Mission will reconfigure the way the church talks about and practices mission in the world today

Effective Discipling in Muslim Communities Don Little,2015-07-14 Muslims who come to Christ face momentous spiritual psychological and social obstacles that drive many to abandon their faith Missiologist Don Little draws on New Testament principles historical practices and interviews with seasoned disciplers ministering in Muslim countries to effectively disciple believers from Muslim backgrounds

Partners, Sisters, and Twins Danny Hunter,2023-07-27 Congregations are increasingly developing partnerships as a way of engaging directly in global missions One of the most common ways they do this is forming relationships with congregations in other parts of the world This book looks at the reasons that churches seek out missions partners how the partnership phenomenon developed and what beliefs concepts structures and practices inform the healthiest mission partnerships With insights drawn from a survey of churches from across the country and around the world this book provides data driven insights to guide the practice of international congregational partnerships
