Cross And Human Transformation The:

The Cross and Human Transformation Alexandra R. Brown, 1995 In our time the cross is often more a source of controversy than a sign of peace While aware of differing points of view Alexandra Brown shows that Paul's proclamation of the cross was an inclusive and empowering word of liberation peace and reconciliation In 1 Corinthians Paul strikes at the heart of schism in the church Against the barriers of ego and ideology that divided believers in Corinth he proclaims a liberating message This book explores the way the word of the cross in 1 Corinthians invades the perception of its hearers liberating them from the old world with its enslaving system of convictions and ushering them into the new creation revealed by the cross The First Epistle to the Corinthians Anthony C. Thiselton, 2000 A new examination of a classic Christian text begins with the Greek text of the Corinthians and outlines the most important theological ethical and socio historical issues surrounding this seminal book Interpretation of Tongues and Prophecy in 1 Corinthians 12-14, with a Pentecostal Hermeneutics Jeon Ahn Yongnan, 2019-05-21 Bringing spiritual experience into the domain of biblical hermeneutics this book will certainly stimulate current debates within this field among both Pentecostals and Christians of other traditions The author also applies a Pentecostal hermeneutical methodology to Paul's teaching on tongues and prophecy in 1 Corinthians 12 14 opening possibilities to a Pentecostal pneumatology that tends instead to focus on the Lukan narrative Paul's texts are reconsidered not as doctrinal or situational documents but as dynamic communication within a living community Cross Narratives Neal J. Anthony, 2010-06-01 Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ and specifically its expression through the ubiquitous presence of the humanity of Christ is a fundamental integral expression of that same theology This expression of Luther's theology of the cross Anthony asserts provides both a fuller elaboration and an important and creative corrective with reference to recent signal expressions of the theology of the cross As contemporary theologians of the cross have articulated most notably Douglas John Hall and the late Alan E Lewis the theology of the cross through a transformation of the divine attributes that honors the integrity of created beings is preeminently a theology of redemption from within within redemption In the process of outlining and analyzing these theologies of within redemption Anthony exposes an impasse created by these theologies regarding the relationship of within redemption to individual human narratives It is through Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ Anthony contends that complete within redemption can be expressed Anthony also evaluates the Christology of Karl Barth from the perspective of his findings Not only is Anthony's work an innovative and fresh application of Luther's Christology for contemporary discussions of the theology of the cross but it places Luther's Christology at the cutting edge of contemporary discussions regarding the theology of the cross and its within redemption The Promise of Hermeneutics Roger Lundin, Anthony C. Thiselton, Clarence Walhout, 1999 This work presents an engaging interdisciplinary study of the nature and scope of interpretation one of the most important areas of inquiry in today's postmodern world The three authors all acknowledged experts in the field bring the resources of the Bible Christian tradition and intellectual history to bear upon contemporary hermeneutical disputes

Representing a complete revision of The Responsibility of Hermeneutics 1985 this substantially expanded volume has been brought up to date with recent work in hermeneutics and sets forth an important new perspective that shifts the interpretive focus from the past to the promise of the future Making use of the best insights from current theories about language interpretation and the nature of the self The Promise of Hermeneutics demonstrates how an encounter with contemporary interpretive theory can deepen the church's own hermeneutical practices The authors also show how the Christian faith can help move us beyond the many impasses created by postmodern thought

Hagia Sophia and the Byzantine Aesthetic Experience Nadine Schibille, 2016-04-22 Paramount in the shaping of early Byzantine identity was the construction of the church of Hagia Sophia in Constantinople 532-537 CE This book examines the edifice from the perspective of aesthetics to define the concept of beauty and the meaning of art in early Byzantium Byzantine aesthetic thought is re-evaluated against late antique Neoplatonism and the writings of Pseudo Dionysius that offer fundamental paradigms for the late antique attitude towards art and beauty These metaphysical concepts of aesthetics are ultimately grounded in experiences of sensation and perception and reflect the ways in which the world and reality were perceived and grasped signifying the cultural identity of early Byzantium There are different types of aesthetic data those present in the aesthetic object and those found in aesthetic responses to the object This study looks at the aesthetic data embodied in the sixth century architectural structure and interior decoration of Hagia Sophia as well as in literary responses ekphrasis to the building The purpose of the Byzantine ekphrasis was to convey by verbal means the same effects that the artefact itself would have caused A literary analysis of these rhetorical descriptions recaptures the Byzantine perception and expectations and at the same time reveals the cognitive processes triggered by the Great Church The central aesthetic feature that emerges from sixth century ekphrasis of Hagia Sophia is that of light Light is described as the decisive element in the experience of the sacred space and light is simultaneously associated with the notion of wisdom It is argued that the concepts of light and wisdom are interwoven programmatic elements that underlie the unique architecture and non figurative decoration of Hagia Sophia A similar concern for the phenomenon of light and its epistemological dimension is reflected in other contemporary monuments testifying to the pervasiveness of these aesthetic values in early Byzantium

The Scandal of the Gospel Charles L. Campbell, 2021-10-26 Through its shocking incongruities and transgressive forms the grotesque offers an intriguing lens for exploring the scandal of the gospel and the challenges of Christian preaching Drawing on diverse sources from Swedish crime fiction and contemporary poetry to James Cone Harriet Beecher Stowe and Pussy Riot this book will examine the theological homiletical and social implications of a grotesque gospel for contemporary preachers The book focuses on three aspects of preaching and the grotesque 1 the ways in which a grotesque gospel unsettles the preacher and challenges the false patterns that often shape Christian preaching 2 the importance and challenges of resisting the weaponized grotesque which dehumanizes people and furthers the power of dominant groups 3 the incarnate Word as the carnivalesque grotesque body of Jesus which calls the church to become the porous and inclusive body of Christ The Scandal of the Gospel is the written adaptation of Yale Divinity School's Beecher Lectures given by Charles Campbell in 2018 The last chapter Preaching and the Environmental Grotesque is a new addition

Divine and Human Agency in Paul and His Cultural Environment John M.G. Barclay, Simon J. Gathercole, 2006-01-01 Re-examines Paul within contemporary Jewish debate attuned to the significant theological issues he raises without imposing upon him the frameworks developed in later Christian thought

Bloodless Atonement? Benjamin J. Burkholder, 2017-06-27 Does the Messiah have to die to pay for his people's sins Is the cross of Jesus an atoning sacrifice In recent decades a burgeoning number of theologians have answered the aforementioned questions in the negative In fact some like Rene Girard have gone so far as to assert that seeing the cross as an atoning sacrifice undermines the very essence of the New Testament Gospels While Girard and others following in a similar vein have offered provocative alterations to soteriology that no longer need Jesus's death to acquire forgiveness from God does a bloodless atonement have biblical support Does a nonviolent understanding of the atonement harmonize with the Gospels This particular volume answers these questions with a fresh look at the Synoptic portraits of the Last Supper accounts In them Jesus expounds upon the significance of his death by using the Passover symbols of bread and wine More importantly in these passages in the Gospels we find the fullest articulation of how Jesus's death benefits his followers Holding a wealth of dense theological riches these passages provide theological parameters that can inform contemporary soteriological development especially that which appeals to the New Testament for its basis Conversant with both biblical studies and contemporary theology the work seeks to bring the best of both fields into conversation in productive new ways
