Cruz, Rennie Saunders, 2025-11-18 This book revolutionises our understanding of academic and creative writing processes. This groundbreaking collection, the first of two volumes, explores how Shut Up Write SUAW sessions transform solitary writing into a powerful tool for community building, personal growth and enhanced wellbeing. Featuring 17 diverse chapters from global contributors, the book unveils SUAW's evolution from a simple productivity technique to a comprehensive approach for nurturing writer wellbeing. Organised into four key sections, it examines SUAW's role in fostering community, supporting academic development, transcending institutional boundaries and driving innovative wellbeing practices. From graduate students to established academics, university writing centres to national writers retreats, this book offers a kaleidoscope of perspectives on implementing and adapting SUAW. It challenges the notion of writing as an isolating pursuit, instead presenting it as a collaborative, supportive endeavour that boosts creativity, builds resilience and cultivates a sense of belonging. This essential read provides both practical strategies and theoretical insights, making it invaluable for writing program administrators, academic developers, researchers and anyone interested in innovative approaches to supporting writers' wellbeing.

International Handbook of Media Literacy Education Belinha S. De Abreu, Paul Mihailidis, Alice Y.L. Lee, Jad Melki, Julian McDougall, 2017-04-21 At the forefront in its field, this Handbook examines the theoretical, conceptual, pedagogical and methodological development of media literacy education and research around the world. Building on traditional media literacy frameworks in critical analysis, evaluation and assessment, it incorporates new literacies emerging around connective technologies, mobile platforms and social networks. A global perspective, rather than a Western-centric point of view, is explicitly highlighted, with contributors from all continents showing the empirical research being done at the intersection of media education and engagement in daily life. Structured around five themes: Educational Interventions, Safeguarding Data and Online Privacy, Engagement in Civic Life, Media Creativity and Production, Digital Media Literacy, the volume as a whole emphasizes the competencies needed to engage in meaningful participation in digital culture.

Implementing Communities of Practice in Higher Education Jacquie McDonald, Aileen Cater-Steel, 2016-11-23 In this edited collection, the authors pick up the communities of practice (CoP) approach of sharing practice in their reflection on the experience of taking their CoP vision from a dream to reality. Their stories articulate the vision, the passion and the challenge of working within and/or changing existing institutional culture and practice. The book discusses strategies that worked and considers the lessons learnt to inspire future dreamers and schemers. The multiple perspectives provided in the case studies will assist higher education leaders as well as academic and professional staff in establishing or assessing CoPs. The book offers insights into implementation strategies, practical guidelines and ideas on how CoP theoretical underpinnings can be tailored to the higher education context.
