Representing the "good German" in Literature and Culture After 1945 Pól Ó Dochartaigh, Christiane Schönfeld, 2013 Essays analyzing postwar literary cultural and historical representations of good Germans during the Second World War and the Nazi period In the aftermath of the Second World War both the allied occupying powers and the nascent German authorities sought Germans whose record during the war and the Nazi period could serve as a counterpoint to the notion of Germans as evil That search has never really stopped In the past few years we have witnessed a burgeoning of cultural representations of this other kind of Third Reich citizen the good German as opposed to the committed Nazi or genocidal maniac Such representations have highlighted individuals choices in favor of dissenting behavior moral truth or at the very least civil disobedience The good German's counterhegemonic practice cannot negate or contradict the barbaric reality of Hitler's Germany but reflects a value system based on humanity and an other ideal community This volume of new essays explores postwar and recent representations of good Germans during the Third Reich analyzing the logic of moral behavior cultural and moral relativism and social conformity found in them It thus draws together discussions of the function and reception of Good Germans in Germany and abroad Contributors Eoin Bourke Manuel Bragança Maeve Cooke Kevin De Ornellas Sabine Egger Joachim Fischer Coman Hamilton Jon Hughes Karina von Lindeiner Strösky Alexandra Ludewig Pól Ó Dochartaigh Christiane Schönfeld Matthias Uecker Pól Ó Dochartaigh is Professor of German and Dean of the Faculty of Arts at the University of Ulster Northern Ireland Christiane Schönfeld is Senior Lecturer in German and Head of the Department of German Studies at Mary Immaculate College University of Limerick

Landmarks in the German Novel Peter Hutchinson, 2007 There is a large pool of German novelists in whose oeuvre we may look for works of landmark significance and at certain periods of its history German fiction is particularly rich Yet although the novel begins to assert itself in the seventeenth century we have to wait until the late eighteenth and Goethe's first major prose work Werther to see it truly rise to the level of other genres The thirteen novels featured in this collection have all proved milestones in the development of the form and there is heavy prominence given to works by Goethe himself and by Thomas Mann Through these as well as those by such figures as Kafka Hesse and Günter Grass we can trace the development of the novel to its far more self-conscious form ranging through the social studies of the nineteenth to works which treat a variety of intellectual psychological and philosophical issues in the twentieth A second volume will cover landmarks published between 1959 and the present day These essays all by specialists in the relevant field were originally delivered as lectures in the University of Cambridge Weinhold Pamphlets: German Literature of 18th Century ,1852

Owen, 2001 This study of contemporary German poetry represents the first attempt to examine comprehensively and at some length the lyric response to the unification period It sets out to investigate by means of close textual analysis whether the German Wende was also a turning point for poetry exploring how GDR poets responded both to the revolutionary events of 1989 and subsequently to the new united Germany On Masaryk Josef Novák, 1988 German-Language Nature Writing from Eighteenth Century to the Present Gabriele Dürbeck, Christine Kanz, 2024-05-11 This volume examines the topic of German language nature writing in a broad historical context spanning more than two centuries It brings together contributions on the debates of the category Nature Writing by numerous renowned international scholars It discusses literary texts of natural history nature exploration nature poetry perception and reflection by German speaking authors since the 18th century including texts by Ulrike Draesner and on Esther Kinsky's writing The book asks whether the here discussed texts can should or may also be labeled as Nature Writing and how this new perspective on German literary history might change traditional classifications such as Naturlyrik nature poetry in German literary history
