Data Communications AND Networking

A globe of the Earth is centered on the image, showing green continents and blue oceans. Overlaid on the globe are several glowing, multi-colored lines (red, green, blue, yellow) that represent data paths or network connections. These lines curve around the globe and extend towards the edges of the frame. A white rectangular banner is positioned horizontally across the middle of the globe, containing the text 'EDUTAKERS.COM' in blue capital letters. The background of the entire cover is a solid red color with a subtle grid pattern.
