A Practical Guide to Logistics Jerry Rudd, 2019-07-03 Few people come into logistics management with knowledge and experience of all aspects of the profession Some may have worked their way up from driving a vehicle but know little of warehouses others may find themselves taking responsibility for logistics as part of a wider remit such as operations A Practical Guide to Logistics aims to equip them with the necessary knowledge to move on to the next stage with simple non technical explanations of the options available and impartial advice on how to choose the right option for their business It is also an excellent primer for students studying logistics for the first time on BSc or MSc courses as well as practitioners on professional training courses A Practical Guide to Logistics is a straightforward guide taking readers through all aspects of this fascinating industry covering packaging transportation warehousing and exporting and importing of goods There is a real need for this basic knowledge both for practitioners starting out in the industry or more experienced practitioners who may have gaps in their knowledge The book examines each aspect of logistics in turn and the text is supported by numerous illustrations

The Computer and Blood Banking J. R. Möhr, A. Kluge, 2013-03-08 In the autumn of 1980 the decision was made by the responsible bodies of the German Society for Medical Documentation Informatics and Statistics Deutsche Gesellschaft für Medizinische Dokumentation Informatik und Statistik e V to make the application of computers in blood banking and blood transfusion one of the topics to be treated at the 8th spring conference of this Society which was then arranged to take place in Tübingen from April 9-11 1981 The goal of the conference was to unite application specialists and methodologists in order to assess current achievements and identify fields needing further improvement We were fortunate to obtain the interest of the German Society for Blood Transfusion and Immunohaematology D. Roos the head of the EDP Work study group of the Section 1 of this Society did substantially influence the programme Many of the papers actually reflect accomplishments of his research and of the work study group We also consider ourselves fortunate to win Prof C.
