Cabin Fever A Suburban Fathers Search For The Wild:

Cabin Fever Tom Montgomery Fate, 2012-04-17 If Tom Montgomery Fate has not found the secret formula for the deliberate balanced life he is a chief disciple of the search Chicago Tribune Try to imagine Thoreau married with a job three kids and a minivan This is the sensibility serious yet irreverent that suffuses Cabin Fever as the author seeks to apply the hermit philosopher's insights to a busy modern life Tom Montgomery Fate lives in a Chicago suburb where he is a husband father professor and active member of his community He also lives in a cabin built with the help of friends in the Michigan woods where he walks by the river chops wood and reads Thoreau by candlelight Fate seeks a more attentive deliberate way of seeing the world and our place in it not only in the woods but also in the context of our relationships and society In his search for a more deliberate life amid a high tech material world Fate invites readers into an interrogation of their own lives and into a new kind of vision the possibility of enough in a culture of more City Creatures Gavin Van Horn, Dave

Aftandilian, 2015-11-03 This anthology explores Chicago's surprisingly diverse wildlife through essays poetry paintings and photographs We usually think of cities as the domain of humans but we are just one of thousands of species that call the urban landscape home While Chicago residents are likely familiar with squirrels pigeons and dogs many would be surprised to learn about the leafhoppers and water bears black crowned night herons and bison beavers and massasauga rattlesnakes that are living alongside them City Creatures introduces readers these and other creatures through a variety of creative contributions Contributors bring a story based approach to this urban safari taking readers on birding expeditions to the Magic Hedge at Montrose Harbor on the North Side canoe trips down the South Fork of the Chicago River better known as Bubbly Creek and insect collecting forays or restoration work days in the suburban forest preserves The book is organized into six sections each highlighting one type of place in which people might encounter animals in the city and suburbs For example schoolyard chickens and warrior wasps populate Backyard Diversity and a chorus of deep freeze frogs awaits in Water Worlds Its powerful combination of insightful narratives numinous poetry and full color art will help readers see the city and the creatures who share it with us in an entirely new light Water Lore Camille Roulière, Claudia

Egerer, 2022-05-19 Located within the field of environmental humanities this volume engages with one of the most pressing contemporary environmental challenges of our time how can we shift our understanding and realign what water means to us Water is increasingly at the centre of scientific and public debates about climate change In these debates rising sea levels compete against desertification hurricanes and floods follow periods of prolonged drought As we continue to pollute canalise and desalinate waters the ambiguous nature of our relationship with these entities becomes visible From the paradisiac and pristine scenery of holiday postcards through to the devastated landscapes of post tsunami news reports images of waters surround us And while we continue to damage what most sustains us collective precarity grows Breaking down disciplinary boundaries with contributions from scholars in the visual arts history earth systems anthropology architecture literature and creative writing archaeology and music this edited collection creates space for less prominent perspectives with many authors coming from female Indigenous and LGBTQIA contexts Combining established and emerging voices and practice led research and critical scholarship the book explores water across its scientific symbolic material imaginary practical and aesthetic dimensions It examines and interrogates our cultural construction and representation of water and through original research and theory suggests ways in which we can reframe the dialogue to create a better relationship with water sources in diverse contexts and geographies This expansive book brings together key emerging scholarship on water persona and agency and would be an ideal supplementary text for discussions on the blue humanities climate change environmental anthropology and environmental history Reading and Writing Experimental Texts Robin Silbergleid, Kristina Quynn, 2017-10-03 This collection of essays offers twelve innovative approaches to contemporary literary criticism The contributors women scholars who range from undergraduate students to contingent faculty to endowed chairs stage a critical dialogue that raises vital questions about the aims and forms of criticism its discourses and politics as well as the personal institutional and economic conditions of its production Offering compelling feminist and queer readings of avant garde twentieth and twenty first century texts the essays included here are playful performative and theoretically savvy Written for students scholars and professors in literature and creative writing Reading and Writing Experimental Texts provides examples for doing literary scholarship in innovative ways These provocative readings invite conversation and community reminding us that if the stakes of critical innovation are high so are the pleasures Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08 The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage Its authors have won half of the nation's Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes This volume explores the rich racial ethnic and cultural diversity of the region It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest's continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature Everyday People Save the Planet and So Can You Deborah McCarthy Auriffeille, 2022-09-23 Everyday People Save the Planet and So Can You A Qualitative Examination of Green Lifestyles in Lowcountry South Carolina examines three interview studies conducted over the last two decades with green parents choice utility bike commuters and necessity utility bike commuters This book draws on qualitative analyses of the data and literature social practice social innovation embodiment and attention economy research theory to ask and answer the question of how advocates and policy makers can enable pro environmental behavior in people's everyday lives Deborah McCarthy Auriffeille begins by focusing on the particularities of living green in Lowcountry South Carolina a region that is both highly conservative and conservationist She then examines the pathways to challenges of and meanings motivations that practitioners told about green living Finally she draws on analyses of respondents narratives and interdisciplinary theory to make policy recommendations and suggestions for future social science research directions
