W.E.B. Du Bois and the Africana Rhetoric of Dealienation Monique Leslie Akassi, 2018-11-02 As the rich words from the African proverbs resonate into the twenty first century regarding the importance of identity and telling the stories of people of African descent through the eyes of the people the grand rhetorician and griot of the twentieth century Dr William Edward Burghardt Du Bois s infamous problem remains so today the problem of the colour line After the election of Barack Hussein Obama the first African American president of the United States after the Civil Rights Movement after Brown versus the Board of Education after the students right to their own language after Plessy versus Ferguson and the murders of innocent young African American males including Emmett Till Timothy Thomas Trayvon Martin John Crawford III Tamir Rice Jordan Davis Eric Garner and Mike Brown people of African descent are still battling with being labelled a problem in one s own country while the USA continues to strive for a post racial era W E B Du Bois s rhetoric and motives in general are more relevant today than ever in reassessing what he so eloquently describes and unveils through the phrase double consciousness in Souls of Black Folk 1903 through which he reveals the feeling of a problem This ground breaking volume featuring contributions from W E B Du Bois s great grandson Arthur McFarlane II among others is organized into three parts Part I focuses on the foundation of Du Bois s Africana Rhetoric through the origins of Africana

The Rhetoricity of Philosophy Blake D. Scott, 2024-08-02 This book aims to recast the way that philosophers understand rhetoric Rather than follow most philosophers in conceiving rhetoric as a specific way of speaking or writing it shows that rhetoric is better understood as a dimension of all human discourse and action what the author calls rhetoricity This book provides the first philosophical treatment of rhetoricity It is motivated by two ongoing developments The first is the debate between Alain Badiou and Barbara Cassin about philosophy s relation to rhetoric Both Badiou and Cassin are critical of rhetoric albeit for different reasons Second there has been a growing resurgence of interest in rhetoric considering the recent rise in authoritarian politics as well as new forms of propaganda driven by persuasive technologies This book identifies the common target of Badiou s and Cassin s otherwise incompatible critiques rhetoric s conception of audience It offers a fresh take on the new rhetoric project of Cha m Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts Tyteca putting their work into conversation with the Badiou Cassin debate The book then turns to the hermeneutic philosophy of Paul Ricoeur in search of an expanded conception of audience It shows that Ricoeur s hermeneutic philosophy allows us to extend Perelman and Olbrechts Tyteca s psychological notion of audience to texts themselves and to argue that human beings have a rhetorical capacity to reflect on audiences in search of what is potentially persuasive The Rhetoricity of Philosophy will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in contemporary European philosophy rhetoric argumentation studies and social theory

Educational Research: Proofs, Arguments, and Other Reasonings Paul Smeyers, Marc Depaepe, 2009-10-08 This book focuses on the language of educational research as well as on the language of education It conceives both as social practices and investigates how rhetoric plays a part in the complex process of historically situated argumentation The book aims to answer such questions as What is the nature of the arguments and the kinds of sources one relies on and What kind of reasoning is offered to convince practitioners Taking postmodern criticism seriously the contributors argue that the scholar or researcher cannot indulge in relativism or be satisfied with a description of particular cases Instead theoreticians as well as practitioners have to engage in sound thinking and dialogue The chapters in this volume highlight relevant characteristics of the language of educational research In addition attention is paid to the language of particular debates which figure prominently in the wider educational context such as the language of goals of parenting citizenship and capability

Xenophon on Violence Aggelos Kapellos, 2019-10-21 This volume examines the issue of violence in Xenophon's works who lived in circumstances of war for many years All the papers address issues of violence from different aspects The exclusive focus on this issue is justified since no previous detailed study exists on the subject Most of the chapters focus on the Hellenica because this work records more aspects of violence than the rest of his works The volume is more concerned with examining violence in practice rather than the theory of violence and violent practices are more frequently recorded in the Hellenica which is the main historical work of Xenophon This volume attempts to provide a comprehensive study of the subject of violence in Xenophon's works and to demonstrate the coherence and consistency of his thought on it This work aspires to be a contribution to classical scholarship since it attempts to 1 shed further light on the literary character of Xenophon's oeuvre 2 offer new interpretation of passages and themes and 3 put emphasis on passages that scholars have not pointed out and which offer important insights to the thought of Xenophon
