Hermeneutics, Authority, and Canon D. A. Carson,John Woodbridge,2005-03-09 Among the many recent discussions of the nature and authority of Scripture I would judge this to be one of the most valuable Particularly in those essays that deal with the actual phenomena of the text of Scripture it displays a level of sophistication and of sympathetic awareness of alternative views that has too often been lacking In contrast to the backs to the wall tone of some conservative defenses of inerrancy these authors write for the most part with the confidence of those who have a coherent and well grounded position to offer The volume will I believe both help to commend Evangelical doctrine to those who suspect it of blind obscurantism and also contribute significantly to mutual understanding among Evangelicals who are too ready to polarize over their different assessments of what it means to honor Scripture as the Word of God R T France Vice Principal London Bible College These thought minded essays are the channel through which conservative scholars must steer for competent interaction with current critical theories for helpful direction in focusing the battle over Scripture and for reflection of conflict areas that Evangelicals must themselves resolve This work rises above the shallow shadow boxing over inerrancy and engages central concerns with academic ability and dignity It puts on the agenda issues that Evangelical leaders must now wrestle Does the Bible contain different kinds of truth Is all divine revelation rational Is the canon really post apostolic No reader will agree with all that is said some will loudly disagree here and there But all students will be stimulated and serious readers edified at the frontiers of current debate Carl F H Henry Lecturer at Large World Visio Fulfillment of Prophecy Gary

Gallant,2023-08-30 Many believers neglect to study the Old Testament because they find it confusing or because they assume that it is less important to the Christian faith than the New Testament We cannot understand Jesus or His gospel without a proper grounding in the Old Testament Scriptures Thus we need to read and study the whole counsel of God Let us not neglect the study of either testament Unique among all books ever written the Bible accurately foretells specific events in detail many years sometimes centuries before they occur Approximately 2 500 prophecies appear in the pages of the Bible about 2 000 of which already have been fulfilled to the letter no errors The remaining 500 or so reach into the future and may be seen unfolding as days go by Since the probability of any one of these prophecies having been fulfilled by chance averages less than one in ten figured very conservatively and since the prophecies are for the most part independent of one another the odds for all these prophecies having been fulfilled by chance without error is less than one in 102000 that is 1

with 2 000 zeros written after it God is not the only one however who uses forecasts of future events to get people s attention Satan does too Through clairvoyants such as Jeanne Dixon and Edgar Cayce mediums spiritists and others come remarkable predictions though rarely with more than about 60 percent accuracy never with total accuracy Messages from Satan furthermore fail to match the details of Bible prophecies nor do they include a call to repentance The acid test for identifying a prophet of God is recorded by Moses in Deuteronomy 18 21 22 According to this Bible passage and others God s prophets as distinct from Satan s spokesmen are 100 percent accurate in their predictions There is no room for error The New Testament indicates that what happened at the cross and on it was what the prophets had predicted would happen long before Details of Jesus life and death were written in divine prophecy hundreds of years before He was born in Bethlehem Throughout the Gospels this amazing truth is emphasized As Jesus and His apostles left the upper room for the Garden of Gethsemane He said to them You will all fall away because it is written I will strike down the shepherd and the sheep shall be scattered Mark 14 27 After Judas betrayal Jesus rebuked Peter for drawing his sword and cutting off the ear of Malchus and said to him Put your sword back into its place How then will the Scriptures be fulfilled which say that it must happen this way Matthew 26 52 54 On the cross Jesus waited until He saw that all things had already been accomplished before He uttered His only physical request I am thirsty John 19 28 Later the spear was thrust into Jesus side and blood and water came out We read For these things came to pass to fulfill the Scripture Not a bone of Him shall be broken And again another Scripture says They shall look on Him whom they pierced John 19 36 37 The angel who was at the tomb on the morning of the resurrection said Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and the third day rises again Luke 24 6 7 When Jesus met with the apostles and disciples Sunday evening the same day He arose from the dead He said to them These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you that all things which are written about Me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise again from the dead the third day and that repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations beginning from Jerusalem Luke 24 44 47 In Jesus affirmation to those Sunday night witnesses He referred to all three divisions of the Hebrew Old Testament the Law of Moses the Prophets and the Psalms as He described the prophecies that had been fulfilled in Him It has been said that if one reads any part of the Bible and does not see Jesus in it he should go back and reread it for he has missed something very important In Peter s first gospel sermon on the Day of Pentecost he declared that Jesus had been delivered into the hands of godless men to be put to death by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God Acts 2 23 In his second sermon in Acts Peter covered in one sweeping sentence the prophecies of the whole Old Testament saying that Jesus sufferings on the cross fulfilled all that had been prophesied But the things which God announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets that His Christ would suffer He has thus fulfilled Acts 3 18

Divine Diagrams Berthold Kress, 2014-05-12 After the Reformation the successful painter Paul Lautensack 1477-78-1558 dedicated himself to spreading revelations on the nature of God. Lautensack was besides Dürer the only German artist who wrote against the iconoclasts and he believed that he as a painter could explain the images of Revelation better than theologians like Luther. He presented his insights in hundreds of highly sophisticated diagrams that display a wide range of material accessible to an urban craftsman from the vernacular Bible to calendar illustrations. This study is the first monograph on this extraordinary man; it presents a corpus of his surviving works, analyzes his peculiar theology of the image, and locates the elements of his diagrams in the visual world of the Reformation period.

Book 3 Authority HC Kurt Jurgensmeier, 2012-08-22. Is Scripture really our ultimate authority? Most Christians answer this question by simply saying "The Bible is my final authority." But as we explain here, such a view forgets that there is a human being between us and the Bible, which is why there are a multitude of interpretations of the Bible that people live by. Reformed theologians in particular have claimed that a testimony of the Spirit or some sort of an additional revelation of the Spirit confirms to us what is true. But again, we can demonstrate that there is no biblical or practical support for this. Accordingly, we are back to our God-given reason and the right and responsibility of private judgment as our ultimate subjective authority by which we live. By Postmoderns are right then to assert that our own reason is the god we live by. But they are wrong to ignore that our ultimate objective authority is God. Who our reasoning will be judged by.
