the most influential woman in the history of jazz receives the attention she has long deserved in the definitive biography by a leading scholar of women in jazz The illegitimate child of an impoverished and indifferent mother Williams began performing publicly at the age of seven when she became known admiringly in her native Pittsburgh as the little piano girl of East Liberty playing one day for the Mellons at bridge teas and the next in gambling dens where the hat was passed for change She grew up with the jazz of the early part of the century championed by the likes of Earl Hines and Fats Waller yet unlike so many other musicians of her time she was open to new forms in jazz she was an early champion of bop and a mentor and colleague to its central figures such as Thelonius Monk and Bud Powell and in broader musical styles as well after her
